From the Pastor's Desk

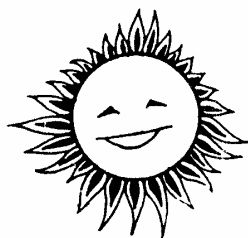

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad."

Once again on this Summer Sunday, the Word of God provides us with a rich fare. The Lord says to Solomon, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." God was pleased that Solomon asked for an understanding heart instead of long life or riches. For with such a request, God can work miracles. All things work for the good for those who love God. The desire of Solomon is what characterizes the heart of the man who sells all he has to buy the treasure-bearing field. The desire of Solomon is what sets apart the merchant who risks his whole livelihood to buy what he judges to be the "pearl of great price." They can make these sacrifices with certainty because that treasure, that pearl, corresponds to the deepest longings of the understanding heart – for it is Christ Jesus Himself.

This week in the Liturgy is rather quiet. On Tuesday we celebrate the Feast of St. Martha. She was the sister of Mary Magdalen and Lazarus who lived a humble active life in Bethany. She often gave hospitality to Jesus and according to many traditions, the family ended their days at Marseilles – with St. Lazarus as Bishop, St. Mary Magdalen as penitent and St. Martha as head of a small community of holy women.

Thursday, the 31st of July we remember St. Ignatius of Loyola. He was a courtier and knight and was wounded at the siege of Pampeluna. During his long convalescence the reading of the lives of the Saints revealed to him that the Church needed an army of glorious soldiers to fight the forces of evil. He founded the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) and as the First General of this new spiritual chivalry he moved to the attack under the motto: "Ad maiorem Dei gloriam – To the greater glory of God!" Ignatius died with the Holy Name of Jesus on his lips in the year 1556. And how fitting it is that on Thursday three young men will receive the habit of our Order and begin their novitiate, in preparation for the first Profession of Vows next Summer. Father Gerard and many people of the Parish have worked long and hard to prepare the St. James Rectory to be the new home for our Religious. May St. Ignatius and our Holy Founders guide the Novices and Father Gerard in the ways of seeking perfect charity which is the very essence of the religious life.

On the First Friday, August the 1st we celebrate the Feast of St. Alphonsus Liguori. This Neapolitan nobleman renounced all earthly things. He established the Congregations of the Most Holy Redeemer, the Redemptorists) to preach the Gospel of the Lord Jesus to poor and those whom society shunned away. Illustrious by his preaching and his writings, he was made Bishop of St. Agatha, in southern Italy. He later returned to his Congregation and died in the year 1787. The last couple of years were spent in a wheelchair because of crippling arthritis. He is the patron Saint of those who suffer from this affliction. And just a reminder: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will NOT be on Friday, August the 1st but on Thursday, August the 7th from after the 6:45AM Mass until 7PM with Evening Prayer and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please come and spend a few moments with the Lord in the Eucharist. It is THE greatest treasure in our Church!

Saturday, the 2nd of August is the First Saturday of the month of August which, of course, is lovingly dedicated to the memory of the Most Holy Mother of God. If every Sunday is Easter Sunday when we celebrate again and again the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead, every Saturday is holy as we keep watch in the company of Our Blessed Lady.

So as we can see, the Liturgy tries to make holy every week in the Church Year by celebrating the Feasts of those outstanding Men and Women who loved God tremendously in spite of very difficult situations. Saints come from all walks of life and all ages. In October the Holy Father will proclaim "Blessed" the parents of the Little Flower, St. Theresa of the Child Jesus. Her Mother, Zelig, died when the Little Flower was just a young child, but her Father, Louis, died when she was in the Carmelite Monastery. For the last several years of his life, Louis, suffered from dementia and Alzheimer's Disease. His illness caused much suffering for St. Theresa. She wrote before she died: "The Good God gave me parents more worthy of heaven than of earth." On Mission Sunday, October the 19th those words will be proved very true! Blessed Louis Martin will be the patron Saint of those who suffer from Alzheimer's and those who suffer with them. More about this amazing couple as the Beatification draws nearer.

May the week ahead be filled with God's greatest graces and blessings. Enjoy the remaining weeks of Summer. Soon it will be back to school -the most wonderful time of the year!

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

Comments from the 8th Grade...

"You have done so much for the eighth grade class that there is no way we could possibly repay you. You help with fundraisers, school events, and much more. This is my way of saying thanks for all the hard work and effort you put into this school."

Mark Klosinski, Class of '08

"Thank you for all you that you do for us here at Incarnation-St. James, and thank you for making this the best year for the 8th grade!"

Vanessa Gonzalez, Class of '08

"Dear Parish – thank you for everything you do to support our school. You donated to our parish center so we can play basketball and have gym class, participated in our fundraisers – which helped raise money for our class trip. We appreciate all that you do for us!"

Dayquan McLaine, Class of '08

"Thank you for supporting Incarnation-St. James School. Thank you for giving donations for many different uses – such as our parish center, tuition, and more. I know how much you care about my school!"

Carlton Thornton, Class of '08

"Thank you, Parish of Incarnation-St. James for supporting us through the years. For helping us raise money for our school, helping to build our gym, and helping with our class trip fundraisers. Your donations have gone a long way in our school."

Cameron Watkins, Class of '08

"I want to thank you all for everything you do. When I first came to this school, 9 years ago, we didn't have nearly as much as we do now – such as the amazing gym, and the computer lab. Thank you so much for all you've done for us!"

Bryanna Kunkle, Class of '08

"Thank you so much for these past 9 years of my life! I think it is so wonderful how you guys help out the school. I'd also like to thank you for participating in our fundraisers. Thanks a lot!"

Donovan Harris, Class of '08
