From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“Truly this is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

This week-end we welcome Father Jeffrey M. L'Arche, M.S. of the Missionaries of Our Lady of LaSalette, who will preach at all the liturgies regarding the Missions. Father belongs to a Religious Order that was founded in France dedicated to the apparition of Our Blessed Lady to two young children on September 19, 1846 in the town of LaSalette near Corps in the Diocese of Grenoble, France.

When the children were tending the sheep they saw a globe of light hovering near a large rock and then they beheld a most beautiful Lady seated on the rock with Her face buried in Her Hands crying. Later Melanie, the young girl, would say that “... she looked like a Mother who had been very hurt by her children.” That Lady was Our Blessed Lady and she gave the two children a message that She would repeat in Lourdes and in Fatima, a message of penance and reparation. On Her breast, Our Lady wore a Crucifix with a hammer on one side and pincers on the other, a symbol of sin (hammer) and penance (pincers). Father Jeff will wear that crucifix as part of his religious habit. I would ask you to be very generous with the second collection as it benefits LaSalette Missions and other Church Missions around the world. I have always found the Parish very, very generous when it comes to the Missions. Thank you, in advance, for your never-failing generosity.

Several important days are marked this week. Tomorrow, Monday the 29th of June we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul. The special year of St. Paul proclaimed by our Holy Father last year comes to its conclusion, a year which marked the 2,000th anniversary of the birth of the great Apostle and Missionary. The city of Rome celebrates this day like we do the Fourth of July, with fireworks and beautiful Liturgy. There is an antiphon in the Divine Office for this day that proclaims: “O Urbs Felix!” “O happy City of Rome, purpled with the blood of such great Martyrs.” The Holy Father will bestow the Pallium, a special woolen stole on Archbishops from around the world. Saints Peter and Paul form the Foundation of the Church with Christ Jesus as the capstone. What a wonderful opportunity this day affords us to renew our love and loyalty to the Church and to our Holy Father.

Tuesday, the last day of June, we celebrate the Holy Roman Martyrs of the Church. In the Summer of 64 A.D. the Emperor Nero wanted to do some urban renewal and so set the Greek section of the city of Rome on fire. The blaze got out of control and a large section of the City was burned. Nero blamed the fire on the newly-founded Christian sect and had its leaders and many members imprisoned and burned at the stake and thrown to wild beasts, Saint Peter was among them. Where the Vatican sits today was a circus, an amusement area, and it was here that St. Peter was crucified up side down because he did not feel worthy to die like his Master.

When he was taken from the cross he was buried and his grave is now where the Basilica of St. Peter now stands. Right below the main Altar is the grave of the first Pope and the Prince of the Apostles. Every five years every Bishop must report to the Holy Father on the spiritual and financial state of the Diocese and visit the tomb of St. Peter for special prayers seeking the guidance of the Saint in the administration of the Diocese.

The month of July begins with the Feast of Blessed Junipero Serra a Franciscan Missionary responsible for settling the California Mission area. The Order sent some of its finest missionaries to spread the Faith among the Native Americans. Our Nation is a rich mixture of different Faiths but our Catholic Faith was one of the first introduced. Only God knows all of the sacrifices that were made so that the Gospel could be preached. Also July the 1st is the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. With the reforms of the Liturgy in the late 1960's this Feast was eliminated from the liturgical books only to be re-introduced in the New Roman Missal soon to be approved by the Holy See. What a rich Feast this is as we honor and adore the Blood by which our redemption has been wrought. A couple of weeks ago we celebrated the Feasts of Corpus Christi and the Sacred Heart so this Feast of the Most Precious Blood is a wonderful compliment. At the time of His Passion and Death the crowds screamed: “Let His Blood be upon us and our children!” Now we pray that It be for us a laver of salvation and redemption. “Praise to the Divine Heart of Jesus which has wrought our salvation!”

This Friday, July the 3rd is the First Friday of the Month and also the Feast of the Holy Apostle St. Thomas. Even though we are in early Summer, the Gospel this day brings us back to that first Easter Sunday when Jesus invited Thomas to put his hands into the Hands and Side of the risen Savior. His prayer of faith has been on the lips of the Church for two thousand years: “My Lord and My God!” Poor St. Thomas I think he must be the patron Saint of all those who are always late for everything. He was not there on that first Easter morning when Jesus appeared to the Apostles – he waited a whole week later and he was not there when Our Blessed Lady “fell asleep” at Her Assumption, which we will celebrate on August the 15th. St. Thomas will always be remembered for his doubt which led to his great faith. Tradition has it that St. Thomas preached the faith to what is now India and there he was put to death in Southern India. Father Pradeep often visited the Tomb of St. Thomas when he was in India and now that he is back will visit it often. This is also as I mentioned earlier the First Friday. The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from after the 6:45 AM Mass until 4 PM when it will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. What a wonderful way to begin the holiday week-end of the Fourth of July by spending some time in the presence of the One who is the Author of our freedoms and liberty.

Of course this Saturday is the Fourth of July. We have many ways to celebrate this great National Holiday. We will have the usual morning Masses at 8AM at St. James and 9 AM at Incarnation. In the afternoon the usual Masses for the Lord's Day at 4PM at St. James and 5:30 for Incarnation. Try to attend Mass on Saturday and thank God for this great Nation of ours and the freedoms which we enjoy. As we look at other parts of the world, how fortunate we are to have all the blessings God has showered down upon us. God bless America now and always.

May this week ahead, filled with so many celebrations and grace, be a blessing to you and to your family. Thank you always for your unflinching generosity to our beautiful Parish and we welcome again Father Jeffrey to our Family.

In the Love of Jesus and Our Lady,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.

This weekend we are happy to take part in the Diocese of Trenton's Annual Mission Cooperative Appeal. We welcome Father Jeffrey M. L'Arche, M.S. who will speak to us about the LaSalette Missionaries.

Having brought the fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of LaSalette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life – beginning at the LaSalette Shrine in France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the LaSalette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, India, Madagascar, Myanmar and the Philippines. With you cooperation, the Missionaries of LaSalette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciliation message to the poor.

PETER'S PENCE

Today we recall the apostolic journey of Pope Benedict XVI to the United States and his call to us to cast the light of Christ upon the world. We can show our solidarity with the Holy Father and our suffering brothers and sisters abroad through our support of this week's collection. These funds allow him to provide emergency assistance to victims of war, disaster, oppression, and disease. Please be generous in today's Peter's Pence Collection.

ATLANTIC CITY – BALLY'S

The Senior Citizens Club is sponsoring a bus trip to Bally's on July 21, 2009. Bus leaves the St. James Campus parking lot at 8:30 a.m. and returns approximately 6:30 p.m. The cost is $21.00 per person and you receive $25.00 back for play. Hope you can join in the fun!

ISJ is a Great Place to Get Your Start!

Comments from the 8th Grade...

"Dear Incarnation-St. James Parish – I want to thank you for your generosity to our school. Every donation you gave, no matter how small, made a difference to my education. Your support for ISJ is much appreciated by all the students here, especially by the graduating Class of 2009. You have made my nine years here an amazing experience. I want you to know that the Catholic education I have received taught me Christian values that will guide me through life. My education here has been an excellent one, because your support for our school made it great. As a student graduating from ISJ, I would like you to know that you have made a difference in my life. Thank you."

Sophia Su, Class of '09

"Dear Incarnation-St. James Parish – We can not thank you enough for everything you do for our school, including all the fundraisers you've participated in. Our school would not be the same without you. You complete the ISJ picture! Your generous donations have made our school a better place to learn, grow, and pray. Thank you!"

Rebecca Hoyt, Class of '09

"Dear Incarnation-St. James Parish – I thank you for everything you have done for me during my two years at Incarnation. I have become a better person by coming here. I thank you for the religion classes, where I have learned a lot about Jesus Christ. I thank you for the science classes, where I have learned about the world we live in and how to appreciate it. I thank you for the history classes, where I've learned about America. Thank you so much for everything you have done. May God bless you in the coming years."

Michael Simpson, Class of '09

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration of new students in the Holy Cross Center of Learning's Special Religious Education Program may be done by calling Mrs. Rose Anna L. Romanello, Coordinator of Religious Education, at 609-882-4567.

The Center will begin its thirty-sixth year on Saturday, September 12th with a Mass celebrated by Msgr. Edward J. Arnister, Spiritual Director of the Center for all students, faculty members, parents, guardians and friends. The Mass will be held at Divine Mercy Parish (Holy Cross Worship Site), 201 Adeline Street, Trenton, NJ at 10:30 a.m. and will be followed by a Party in the Cafeteria of the former Holy Cross School. A short Orientation for all parents and guardians will begin at 12 noon.

The Center is operated under the auspices of the Federation of Holy Innocents Societies (Mercer County Chapter) Diocese of Trenton, with the explicit intention of developing an awareness of Christ's life in each person with intellectual, cognitive and developmental disabilities. It is staffed entirely by volunteers and supported by donations from Knights of Columbus Councils throughout the State and other fraternal service organizations and auxiliaries, as well as many individuals.

The Center teaches persons who are autistic, blind, hearing impaired, mentally retarded, emotionally or physically handicapped, neurologically impaired or learning disabled and are at least 7 years of age, are accepted into the program if they are not able to function in a regular Religious Education Program. During the 2008-09 school year the youngest student registered was 7 and the oldest was 54. Four students received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, four students received the Sacrament of First Eucharist. For the school year 2009-2010 we anticipate that two students will receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist, four the Sacrament of Reconciliation and ten the Sacrament of Confirmation.

The Center provides Religion Classes, Mass, Music, Prayer Services, Rosary Recitation, Workshops, Parties and Recreational Activities for its students on Saturday morning from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. September through the middle of May. Religion classes consist of preparation for the Sacraments as well as courses in Continuing Religious Education including Mass, Bible and Gospel Study. Altar Server instruction is also given.

Any parent interested in enrolling a child or adult in the Program should contact the Coordinator of the Holy Cross Center of Learning, Mrs. Rose Anna L. Romanello at 609-882-4567. There is no charge for registering a student in this Program.

Volunteers are needed to assist the students in the classroom and during all activities. Any persons 13 years of age or older desiring to volunteer their services in this special ministry should contact Mrs. Romanello, 609-882-4567.
