From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"Stir up Your mighty Power, Lord, and come to save us!"

Brothers and Sisters, with this celebration of the Eucharist the Church begins the second week of the Holy Season of Advent. Our anticipation for the coming of the Just One increases symbolized by the lighting of the second candle of the Advent wreath.

Today's second reading from St. Peter tells us how to wait. Awaiting the renewal of creation, we are to strive to be found at peace. This Advent, we await the coming of the Prince of Peace into a world shattered by conflict. As we remember the attack on Pearl Harbor that brought the United States into the Second World War, we pray for the countless men and women who have died, and continue to die, through war and senseless violence. In THE PASTORAL CONSTITUTION ON THE CHURCH IN THE MODERN WORLD of the Second Vatican Council, the Church teaches that peace is not just the absence of war or the balance of power, but peace is justice, human harmony, and unity in love – the fruit of the Spirit. Wars thrive on injustice, pride, and the striving after personal power. Peace thrives on justice, humility and self-sacrifice. How might we practice the peace of Christ this Advent at home, at work, in the parish, and in the neighborhood?

One practice of peace is to pray daily for someone you dislike or someone who has angered you. Practice peace today by resolving to forgive someone and spending time praying about it. If we hope to act in ways that promote peace, we need to spend time cultivating the inner peace out of which we will act. An ancient practice is to pray the psalms. According to Saint Basil the Great, the words of the psalms calm our inner turmoil, transform our sinful tendencies, bring us inner peace, and promote reconciliation. Let this holy Season of Advent be a time of peace and forgiveness as we await the Author of all peace and forgiveness.

This second week of Advent sees the celebration of two great feasts of Our Blessed Lady. Tomorrow we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. It is a holyday of obligation so please consult the bulletin for the times of Masses. This day marks the first moment of the life of Our Lady in the womb of Her Mother, good St. Ann. From that first moment of Her conception, Mary was kept free from the slightest stain of all sin, both Original and Actual. Even the Prophet Mohammed in the holy book, the Koran, praises Mary: "You are all fair, O Mary, and the greatest woman in Paradise. Allah has kept You from the slightest touch of Satan." In the words of the great English Poet William Wordsworth: "Mary, You are our tainted nature's single, solitary boast." Even though we entered this world with Original Sin, we should pray often to leave this world, like Our Blessed Lady, free from all sin. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to Thee.

On Friday we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Patroness of the American appeared as a dark-skinned Virgin to Juan Diego, asking that a temple be built there at Tepeyac. She wanted a place where a conquered native people, suffering from disease, poverty and despair could easily receive her compassion and protection. Mary was the first Christian sanctuary, housing the Savior of all the world in her very body. If we make a place for her in our lives, she will remind us, even in our darkest days, of God's love. Today, make a home altar for family prayer, or decorate the one you have. Include a cross, Bible, candle, and picture of Our Lady.

Concluding this very holy week in the Liturgy is Saturday with the Feast of St. Lucy. She is invoked against diseases of the eyes because part of her martyrdom was having her eyes put out at the hands of the torturers. The name Lucy means "light" and it is very appropriate to celebrate her feast day when daylight is the shortest of the year. In our Parish there is a very strong devotion to this holy Virgin Martyr on behalf of all who suffer from any eye condition. My Mother would pray to St. Lucy constantly to protect her eyes from the ravages of diabetes. I am very grateful to Almighty God and to St. Lucy that my Mother kept her sight until the end of her life. There is a beautiful statue of our Saint in St. James Church.

What a tremendous Season of the Church Year now unfolds before us. We recall the four thousand years the world awaited the coming of the Messiah. The three greatest individuals of the Bible are presented to us for our consideration. The first is the Prophet Isaiah who lived some five hundred years before the birth of Christ. His writings are among the most beautiful and filled with expectation of the Savior. Our second character which comes on the scene today is John the Baptist. Jesus said of him that no man born of woman was greater than the Baptist. He is the last prophet of the Old Testament and the bridge to the New. And finally as the days of Advent melt into that silent night, holy night, we will meet that blessed among all women, Our Blessed Lady. At her assenting nod, God will give to the world His Son. The Liturgy saves the best of the Bible until this most beautiful and poetic of all the seasons of the Church. To make this Season holy, try to attend Mass as often as possible. Pray daily, especially the Rosary, and even though it is not Lent and the Church does not require it by law, even fasting and abstaining is appropriate as we await the birth of our Savior. Catholics of the Eastern Rite have been fasting since November the 15th in preparation for Christmas.

May these holy days of Advent, make us truly holy. O Divine Infant of Bethlehem Whom we adore and acknowledge to be our sovereign Lord, come and take birth in our hearts.

*In the love of Jesus and
Our Blessed Lady, Fr. Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
