Dear ISJ Family,

The season of Lent is upon us once more, a season which coincides with springtime and the rebirth of nature and new life which we see all around us. The Church also desires that each of us grow spiritually and experience a reawakening of our relationship with God during the forty days of Lent, which culminate at Easter with the Lord's passion, death and resurrection. In his message for Lent, Pope Francis reminds us how we have already received God's goodness and mercy when we were clothed with Christ on the day of our baptism. We have been reborn in Christ and the season of Lent is a time for exploring the wonder and beauty of our baptismal calling in Christ. The purpose of Lent is not to make us feel disheartened or uncomfortable in the way we live out our faith, but it is a call to self-examination and for taking a fresh look at our attitude and behavior towards others. Often unknown to ourselves we can little by little become self-centered and lapse into what Pope Francis calls 'indifference to others'.

Our baptism into the Body of Christ does not allow us to pass by on the other side and so ignore the needs and sufferings of those around us. The traditional penitential nature of Lent is not intended to punish us, but to remind us of our need for God's grace and of our obligation to put others before ourselves. Awareness of the presence of God surrounding us and of the need to engage in practical acts of charity will ensure that we grow in God's grace and so become ever more Christ-like in this holy season now beginning.

The Holy Father also speaks of the power of prayer and its essential place in our Lenten exercises. The problems and tragedies of the world can at times appear to overwhelm us and leave us with a sense of helplessness, but we must never underestimate the effect our prayer has before God. Pope Francis says that prayer unites us with all the saints in heaven, and so we are joined in one great surge of prayer which arises before God day and night. To know the gift of prayer and its unfailing power is one of the great graces of Lent.

A Lenten Prayer

Fast from fear; Feast on Faith
Fast from despair; Feed on hope.
Fast from depressing news; Feed on prayer.
Fast from discontent; Feast on gratitude.
Fast from anger and worry; Feed on patience.
Fast from negative thinking; Feast on positive thinking.
Fast from bitterness; Feed on love and forgiveness.
Fast from words that wound; Feast on words that heal.
Fast from gravity; Feast on joy and humor.

A Prayer for the World Meeting of Families Philadelphia 2015

God and Father of us all,
in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
you have made us
your sons and daughters
in the family of the Church.

May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

May the example of the Holy Family,
with the aid of your Holy Spirit,
guide all families,
especially those most troubled,
to be homes of communion and prayer and to always seek your truth and live in your love.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Thank you for your ongoing Catholic Stewardship and support of the Incarnation-St. James Parish.
Nothing can be done without you and your participation and generosity in time, spirit, and financial support.

Weekly Goal: $13,500

Dear Women of Incarnation St. James Parish,

What better way to celebrate the Easter season and increase your spiritual growth than to attend the Spiritual-Tea for Women program, sponsored by the Rosary Altar Society, on Saturday, MARCH 21, 2015! We wish to extend an invitation to all women of the parish to participate in this spiritually enriching program.

This year Nanci Bachman, Pastoral Associate and Director of Adult Faith Formation at St. David the King Church in Princeton Junction, will speak about praying "with open hands," and will be available to answer any questions you may have after the program.

We will provide our guests with an elegant, warm and inviting atmosphere, a delicious array of finger sandwiches, scones and cookies, and a large assortment of teas. Please call me at 609-882-8549 by Tuesday, MARCH 17, to register. We look forward to seeing you at the tea.

Sincerely yours,
Diana Ionata

Pro-Life Baby Shower

There will be a Pro-Life Baby Shower Sunday, MARCH 22, 2015 after the 11:00 Mass at Incarnation Church. This will be different from showers we had in the past because we are hosting the Knights of Columbus Mercer County Chapter Shower. We will be collecting gifts at both churches that weekend. Gift tags will be available the two weekends before the shower as usual. Gifts will be divided between Choice One Pregnancy Center and First Ways. There will be a luncheon after the mass and speakers from both centers will tell about their work. Tickets for the luncheon are $10 for adults and $5 for children and will be available after masses on MARCH 14 and 15 or at the door. Any profits will be donated to the two centers. If you have questions, call Tom and Ruth DeFalco 882-6480.

Anointing of the Sick/Communion to the Homebound: Please notify the Parish Office when serious illness occurs or when the sick, aged, or incapacitated are confined to home for an extended period. Arrangements can be made to bring communion to those unable to attend Mass.
