From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Parish,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad!"

With this celebration of our Sunday Eucharist, we begin the Twenty-Fifth Week in Ordinary Time. Nine more weeks and the current Church Year reaches its grand finale and then the Season of Advent begins with our preparation for Christmas! Can you believe how fast this year is flying by?

Last Sunday we read of THE most important question Jesus ever asked His disciples: "Who do people say that I am?" And they respond to Him with a variety of answers, the "word on the street." But Jesus, point blank, asks them "Who do YOU say that I am?" And leave it to Peter to come up with the correct answer: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God!" Jesus then turns His attention to preparing His disciples for His passion and death and for the necessity of accepting suffering in their own lives. Like the religious leaders, the disciples substitute their own perspectives on what constitutes a religious life for God's perspective. Thus, Jesus contrasts the views of both Peter and the religious leaders with that of God and criticizes both of them in very harsh terms. Peter rebukes Jesus for saying that Jesus will suffer, be killed, and rise again. The disciples express no hesitancy about making the sacrifices necessary to guide their thoughts and feelings or about trying to heal those who are suffering. But to witness to a suffering Messiah and not to be ashamed of such a message seems too much for them to handle. It is easier to witness to what God does for us than to what God suffers because of us? The former speaks indirectly about the richness of our lives because of God, but the latter about our poverty because of our need for conversion.

In Mark's Gospel Jesus has attempted, by enjoining silence on those He healed, to get people to concentrate on their need for reform rather than on a temporal life made full. For Jesus the wise long-term perspective focuses on eternal life. What it takes for such life is much reform, not profit or gain in the world. St. Mark says that the witness to Jesus' suffering on our behalf and then to His Resurrection links us to the pattern of continuing reform leading to eternal life. This witness is important enough to die for because it leads to the fullness of eternal life. Have the disciples learned from Jesus' criticism of Peter's response to the first prediction of His passion? This is the topic addressed in today's passage from the Gospel of Mark, when we hear Jesus' second prediction of His passion and the beginning of His disciples' response to it. This time the disciples are more cautious in their reply to Jesus, no doubt the recent censure of Peter still on their minds.

The first thing we hear following this second prediction is that the disciples did not understand it and "they were afraid to question Him." It soon becomes clear, however, from what the disciples discuss among themselves shortly afterwards, how far they have come in seeing the significance of Jesus' passion and death on the cross. They are wondering which of them is the greatest. Jesus uses this preoccupation of theirs to turn them back to the meaning of His passion. He says that the first will be the last and that the last is the one who serves everyone. This statement links up to the third Passion prediction in which Jesus will talk about giving His life as a ransom for many in terms of service. So Jesus' suffering, to which the disciples are called to witness and follow, is a service to all. Have they got it now? No.

As we will hear next week, they respond that they saw, and attempted to stop, a man who was performing miracles in Jesus' Name "because he does not follow us." It is their privileged status in relation to Jesus that they are concerned to uphold rather than being servant to everyone. The desire for distinction is so strong that it needs to be incessantly weeded out by a deliberate focus on the extent of Jesus' suffering service as a model for our lives as disciples. We pray that we receive the wisdom of God that moves our inner being from living in conflict to being at peace. We ask God to help us to live out the etiquette of the kingdom, and to be willing to change our definition of "greatness" as the world often defines it to what Jesus proposes to His disciples today, a life of service in which we receive both Jesus and the Father Who sent Him. The passion to be great, to achieve, to be "on top", is profoundly human. We get a sense of importance by being over others, and we can get quite passionate when we feel that someone is in any way diminishing us or "dissing" us. But this is not the way of Jesus. Greatness lies not in being first, on top, at the head of the class, accumulating the adulation and admiration of the crowd. Greatness is to be found in a willingness to be last and the servant of all. "You go first," is the motto of the Kingdom. And it is not just a matter of good manners. The willingness to be the last and the least comes from the example of Jesus Himself. The wisdom Jesus taught results in an inner world that makes us "peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity." Kingdom etiquette will bring the peace for which we long.

Speaking of those who serve the Kingdom (as well as our parish) this Tuesday, September the 22nd is Debbie Smith, our Parish secretary, birthday. Debbie is tireless in her service to our Parish and to our School. Whatever task needs to be done, Debbie is there with enthusiasm and expertise. Our Parish runs so well due to the hard work and "nose to the grindstone" dedication of this wonderful woman. If you see Debbie this week, especially Tuesday, wish her the best of the day and a wonderful year ahead. Happy Birthday, Miss Debbie, and thank you on behalf of our Parish and our School Family.

This Wednesday, September the 23rd is the feast of Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina. Padre Pio was born in 1887 in the small Italian village of Pietrelcina. He joined the Capuchin Friars at the age of sixteen and was ordained a priest seven years later. For fifty years at the monastery of San Giovanni Rotondo he was a much sought after spiritual advisor, confessor and intercessor whose life was devoted to the Eucharist and prayer. Yet despite such notoriety, he would often say, "I only want to be a poor friar who prays." He died in 1968 and was canonized a saint by the late Holy Father, John Paul II in 2000. His has been the largest and greatest attended canonization in the history of the Catholic Church. Father James, the Pastor of St. Ann Church in Bristol, Pa. has a tremendous devotion to his humble Religious and prays often for his powerful intercession.

May this week ahead be filled with God's greatest blessings and filled with His love.

In the love of Jesus and Our Blessed Lady, Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.

What's Going on During Mass?

Ever ask yourself what's going on at Mass? Ever wonder what "that" is in the Church? Bored with Mass? Kids bored at Mass? Maybe the antidote is to learn more about the Mass - what it's about, why we do what we do, why the Priest does what he does. Baseball, football, movies, and the Mass are all much more interesting if you know more about what's going on.

Join Father Dan and Deacon Frank Thursday evening, September 17th at 7PM in the Incarnation Parish Center. We'll have a slow motion walkthrough of the Mass with Q&A followed by a stroll to the church for a walkthrough of the worship space; it's a chance to look up close at things you've been wondering about. Hope to see you there. Any questions? Contact Deacon Frank at Frank@IncarnationStJames.org or 609 538-8727 or Father Dan at the Rectory.
