From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

On this June Sunday, we begin the Twelfth Week in Ordinary Time and, once again, the Gospel deals with the theme of discipleship, what it means to follow Jesus then and now. Last week we heard Jesus invite us to preach the dawning of the Kingdom of God. Today we hear that God will protect us in our mission. Jesus makes the simple statement: “Fear no one!” This does not mean that we will not face opposition. We certainly will face problems if we speak the truth, the lives of the Saints bear eloquent testimony to this. Often we will be ridiculed for trying to live according to Christian values. But God has revealed His deepest secrets to us. He has invited us to share in His mission and in the saving work of His Son. How could we wonder whether He would protect us? In today’s Gospel Jesus speaks of how our Heavenly Father even protects the smallest bird. How can we doubt His Providence? The Gospel passage closes with a promise that if we give witness to Jesus before all, He will give witness to our devotion before the Father at the final judgment. But if we deny Him, He will deny us for He can only tell the truth. A rather short Gospel but one that is filled with valuable lessons on the following of Jesus today.

Today we say goodbye to Sister Mary Ellen as she leaves the Parish to begin ministry in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Sister has been here at Incarnation-St. James for over five years and has worked very hard as the Director of Faith Formation, not only for the students in our School and also in the Monday evening Religious Education Program, but also for adults in the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and various enrichment programs. Sister also prepared the Liturgy for each Sunday and Holy Day and also for the weekly Friday School Liturgy and any special liturgical moments in the Parish. I cannot begin to thank Sister for the invaluable help she was to me as I began my ministry here in the Parish almost a year ago (it does not seem possible that a whole year has gone by). Sister Mary Ellen along with our Parish Secretary, Debbie Smith, have always made certain that the life of the Parish runs smoothly. So I owe a debt that could never be fully repaid.

We wish Sister Mary Ellen well and want to assure her that she always has a home here at ISJ. “Well done, good and faithful Servant!” Sister, we shall miss you tremendously and when you leave here we shall take you in our hearts and keep you each day in our prayers.

Two very important Feast Days are being celebrated this coming week. The first is this Tuesday, June the 24th the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, the Forerunner of the Christ. He was the cousin of Jesus and was the great Prophet who prepared people’s heart for the Ministry of Jesus. In the Middle Ages the Baptist’s Birthday was celebrated like a summer-time Christmas Day. Priests were allowed to celebrate three Masses like on Christmas and gifts were exchanged and no work was allowed. Perhaps we should revive that tradition. It was also known as Midsummer’s Night, its setting for William Shakespeare’s famous play. St. John the Baptist is the Patron of Puerto Rico and Canada where it is a national holiday.

Next Sunday, the Church celebrates the great Solemnity of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul. Also next Sunday, the Holy Year in honor of the Apostle Paul will begin, marking the two thousandth anniversary of the Apostle’s birth. Our Holy Father has asked the entire Church to enter into the spirit of the occasion by devoting special devotions and study to Paul and his writings. The Holy Father has allowed next January the 25th the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, falling on a Sunday to be celebrated instead of the usual Sunday Mass formularies. The city of Rome celebrates the 29th of June like we do the fourth of July with fireworks and other festivities. The color of the Mass vestments is red and the day remembers the translation of the Apostles’ Relics and their martyrdom on Vatican Hill. St. Peter was crucified upside down because he did not feel himself worthy to die like his Beloved Master and St. Paul was beheaded. As the Liturgy prays this day: “You, O Lord, have found them worthy of a Martyr’s death, their last and greatest act of witness to You.”

So as you can see these are holy days that are coming upon us, days that deepen our love for Jesus and his Church.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. You are loved!

*In Jesus’ Love,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

Comments from the 8th Grade...

"Dear Incarnation-St. James parish - This year's eighth grade class would like to thank you for all your support and donations during the time we spent at ISJ. Without your generosity, our school would be a fraction of what it is now. I really appreciate the gym, lab room, and computers that you donated to our school. The gym is a great place for all the grades to have fun, and enjoy exercising and playing sports. The lab helps grades 5 to 8 learn about science through hands-on activities in a fun, safe environment. And the computer lab is a place where we learn how to use computers and all their features – it also helps the older grades with research projects. Thank you again for your contributions, and may God bless you all!"

Christina Biancamano, Class of '08

"I would like to thank the Incarnation-St. James parish for my education...not just any education – but a Catholic education. The ISJ parish does so much for us students, and is very supportive of our school. Thank you."

Nicolas Sharpe Jones, Class of '08

"Incarnation-St. James parish community has helped me so much throughout my years here at ISJ. I know the parish really cares – anytime the school is in need, the parish is right there to back us up. We really appreciate it - Thank you!"

Miranda Crum, Class of '08

"Dear Parish Community of ISJ – Thank you! You don't realize how much your dedication means to us. Every time you donate money, or help support a cause in our school, you are very much appreciated. You help complete our school – and every student and faculty member here are thankful!"
