From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

BY YOUR RESURRECTION, O CHRIST,
YOU HAVE TRAMPLED DOWN UPON THE GRAVE AND TO THE DEAD YOU HAVE BESTOWED LIFE! ALLELUIA!

Once again, on this Third Sunday of the Easter Festival we celebrate the rising of Christ to new life. The eight Sundays of the Easter Season can be seen as one long Easter Sunday. The Church and her Liturgy never tires of proclaiming that Christ has shattered the bonds of sin and death and that the victory of the Risen Christ is really our victory. And the Gospels for each of these Easter Sundays presents us with a different portrait of the Risen Savior.

Two weeks ago, on Easter Itself, we saw Jesus rising from the grave and appearing to Our Blessed Lady and to the myrrh-bearing women who came that Sunday morning to anoint the dead body of Jesus with spices never expecting to see Him walking on the wings of the morning. Even though the Scriptures say nothing of Jesus appearing to His Mother, nonetheless popular piety down through the ages assumes that He would choose His Mother to first share in the fruits of the Resurrection. That is why the Church salutes the Most Holy Mother of God during the Easter Season with the greeting: "Queen of Heaven, rejoice, Alleluia! The Son whom you merited to bear has risen as He said, Alleluia!"

Last Sunday, the Octave Day of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday, Jesus appeared to doubting Thomas and invited him to plunge his hands into the wounded hands, feet and side of Jesus. Falling on his knees, Thomas uttered that profession of faith that has been on the lips of the Church for over two thousand years: "My Lord and My God!" Remember when the Sisters taught us in school to look at the Host at Mass when the priest would raise It high and say this same prayer in the depths of our hearts? Of all the Gospels we read over the course of the year, this one touches our hearts the most because there is a little Thomas in all of us. "Unless I see I will never believe!" In the middle of all our confusion and doubts, Jesus comes to us and says: "Do not be afraid, it is I." Peace was the greatest gift Jesus would give us on Easter in addition to His very Self in the Eucharist. Read and re-read this Gospel often and let its words sink deeply into our hearts and lives.

Today, the Third Easter Sunday, the most famous manifestation of Christ after His Resurrection on the road to Emmaus. The two disciples were heart-broken that Jesus had been butchered on a hunk of wood the Friday before and now with all their hopes and dreams shattered they walked in sorrow wondering what would happen next. Then...then... He came and He walked with them. And, as Father James Day, O.S.S.T., Pastor of St. Ann Parish in Bristol, PA often points out in this Gospel, Jesus takes the time and listens to the disciples pour out their hearts and disappointments.

Jesus does not wag His finger in their faces and tell them: "I told you so! You should have believed me when I told you I would rise from the dead." No, none of that, Jesus quietly listens to them and then gently points out to them why it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and then to rise from the dead. How beautiful is the plea of the two disciples when they ask Jesus: "Please stay with us... Stay with us... Stay with us... the day is almost over." Yes, Jesus, stay with us when the day of this life is over – Stay with us and never, ever leave us! And when Jesus sits down with them for the evening meal, He performs a gesture that is uniquely His – He takes bread, blesses it, and gives it to them and then vanishes from their sight. It's over in a flash but the memory of that brief encounter would last for over two thousand years. Whatever life dishes out to you, brothers and sisters, always say this prayer:

"Stay with me, Lord... Stay with me, Lord." For all is joy when He is near. What a tremendous Gospel is presented for our consideration this joyous Easter Day.

Today, I am delighted to be installed as Pastor of Incarnation-St. James Church. I have been here since August the 15th and my love for our Parish and School has grown deeply and steadily. I was very much afraid to take the position after Father Albert departed for Rome because I did not feel equal to the task at hand. Many times I still feel that way but I often think back on a bit of advice Father Thomas Cerulo of our Order gave me when I expressed to him my true feelings: "Dan, my advice to you is – enjoy your Parish Family. Don't worry too much over other things but just take the time to enjoy your parishioners." Thank you, Father Tom, your advice has been priceless! We welcome today all visiting Priests, Religious and Laity, especially Msgr. John Dermond who will represent the Bishop during the Installation Mass. Today gives me the opportunity and all of us to renew our love and our dedication to our Parish. For all that has been, thank you – for all that will be, yes.

Next Saturday, April the 12th, Peter Brennan, President of our Parish Pastoral Council, will be honored by Notre Dame High School, Class of 1966, for outstanding Christian service to his Parish, his Alma Mater, and to the community at large. We congratulate Peter and his wife, Linda, and their family. We are very proud of Peter and his many accomplishments, especially in the field of education and we are most proud and grateful that he shares with his Parish Family the many talents God has graced him. Peter, from the bottom of our hearts, our love and congratulations are with you. You have made us very, very proud.

Finally, on Wednesday, April the 9th Msgr. Gregory Vaughan will confirm our young adults. We hold all of our Confirmation Candidates deep in our hearts and in our prayers. We pray that the Holy Spirit burn their hearts with the Fire of His Divine Love.

May this Easter week ahead be filled with the blessings and joys of Jesus rising from the dead. Christ is risen—truly He has risen! Alleluia!
