From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

Gospel of St. John

With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist, we begin the Third Sunday and Week of Great Lent. Next Sunday we will have reached the mid-point of Lent with the celebration of "Laetare" Sunday or Rejoice Sunday because the sacred days of Holy Week and Easter are so near. More about this in next Sunday's Pastor's Letter.

This Sunday's Gospel reading may make some feel uneasy, especially those who only want Jesus to be kind, loving, and gentle – all the time! But Scripture tells us that Jesus showed many emotions during His ministry: disappointment, exasperation, sadness, grief, and, yes, even anger. Jesus got angry with the religious leaders and even with His disciples on occasion. Today we see the anger of Jesus up close- Jesus with whip cutting through the air, Jesus overturning the tables, Jesus sending coins flying all over the place. In a fit of anger, Jesus spits out His words: "Get these things out of here and stop making my Father's House a marketplace!" Why so angry? The moneychangers and those selling animals were performing a necessary service. Jesus is the Prophet here, proclaiming in word and deed that a new age has, at last, come. The old temple where God lived among the people is being replaced by a new temple where God dwells in human flesh. Jesus is the place where God has taken up residence and where all can encounter God. No payment is necessary; for all is a gift. His words are the words of God; His deeds are the deeds of God. It is in the dying and the rising of Jesus that we encounter the love of God fully revealed. A very significant Gospel we read on this Third Sunday of our Lenten observance.

This week in the midst of Lent we celebrate two great feasts of the Church. The first is Tuesday, March the 17th, the Feast of St. Patrick, the Patron of Ireland. To his great credit, he brought the Gospel to the Emerald Isle and made of it a great stronghold of the Faith. In the midst of our Lenten observances, St. Patrick's Feast is a welcomed respite.

Thursday, March the 19th we celebrate the great Feast of St. Joseph, the Patron of the Universal Church and of a happy death. Joseph, the just man, descended from the house of David, inserts Jesus into the line of David. Like his Old Testament counterpart, Joseph's faithfulness extended even to his dreams. Joseph took Mary into his home as his wife, and loved her with a love beyond all human limits. Joseph looked on the Blessed Virgin Mary as the high priest looks on the Holy of Holies. As a true father, Joseph gave Jesus His Name and rescued his Infant Son from the murderous designs of King Herod.

Saint Joseph's silent obedience resounds in the Catholic Church which he protects. Also St. Joseph is the patron Saint of a happy death. Tradition tells us that he died when Jesus was about nineteen years old and he was surrounded by the Lord Jesus and Our Blessed Lady. That is why he is invoked for a happy and holy death. Also in these times of great economic crisis, St. Joseph is also the Saint of the unemployed and those looking for work or even to sell property. He is a very powerful patron, one we should have recourse to in every necessity. A hymn that appears in the Liturgy this day bids:

*Joseph, be our guide and pattern,
Faithful to your sacred trust,
Strong protector of the Virgin
And the Infant Jesus Christ.
Joseph, firm and faithful, guide us,
Joseph, walk the way with us.*

*Faithful to the guiding vision,
List'ning to the angel's word;
Shielding Mary from all slander,
Guarding Christ, both Son and Lord.
Joseph, true and trusting, guide us,
Joseph, walk the way with us.*

A perfect prayer to be said on the Feast Day of Good Saint Joseph!

Just a reminder: every Friday evening throughout the Lenten Season the Stations of the Cross will be said at Incarnation Church at 7PM and every Sunday afternoon at St. James Church beginning at 3PM. The attendance this year at both of the Stations has been most edifying.

They last only about 45 minutes and it is time well spent meditating on the Passion, Death and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. How our observance of Lent is enriched by this wonderful and holy devotion. Also next week is the start of the Parish mission with Father Carl. Information has been sent to all Parishioners so all can participate in this most important event in the life of our Parish.

As we approach the great and holy days of Holy Week, if it is possible, to be even more attentive to the three great goals of Lent – prayer, fasting and works of mercy and charity. They will prepare us to observe the great mysteries of our faith, those mysteries by which we are reborn in Christ. Try to attend Mass, pray the Rosary and the Stations of the Cross as often as possible. Offer up each Lenten day as your gift to God whatever He may send you. Lent can be THE most fruitful time of the year, a time of change and transfiguration as we read about in last Sunday's Gospel.

May the remainder of Lent be blessed and holy in every way.

*In the love of Jesus Crucified,
Fr. Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

R.C.I.A. – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

To scrutinize is to examine carefully and closely, to analyze. The primary liturgical RCIA Rites of this Lenten period are the Scrutinies, which are celebrated on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sunday's of Lent. They are Rites for self-searching and repentance and have, above all, a spiritual purpose. They are meant to uncover and then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good.

They are meant for all of us as they are celebrated to protect us against temptation and to give us strength in Christ. The First Scrutiny and the Presentation of the Creed will take place at 11:00 Mass at Incarnation Church on March 15th. The Presentation of the Creed prepares the elect to make their baptismal profession of faith.

PRO LIFE BABY SHOWER

Our Respect Life Coordinator, Ruth DeFalco with the help of the Rosary Altar Society will again sponsor a Baby Shower for Choice One and this year we are adding, Angels Wing.

Gift Tags are available, this weekend for you to take. Please note that we will be asking only for diapers and gift cards. The Choice One Center is still in the process of rebuilding and currently has limited space to store gift items. Gift Cards take up much less space. So plan to pick a tag and help us provide help to those in a crisis pregnancy. On Sunday, March 15th at the 11:00 Mass we have invited a Respect Life speaker to join us. The shower reception will take place following the Mass in the Auditorium. All are invited to attend.

MERCER COUNTY FEDERATION OF HOLY NAME SOCIETIES

The 53rd Annual Msgr. Crean Memorial Scholarship Awards will be presented on Sunday, March 22, 2009 at Incarnation Roman Catholic Church, Ewing, NJ. Mass will be celebrated at 7:30 A.M. A buffet breakfast will follow in the Auditorium.

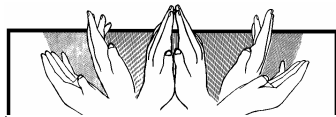

This is an excellent opportunity for men of the parish to come and talk with members of other parishes to see what the Holy Name Society is all about. Don't miss the opportunity.

All adults are welcome to attend the Breakfast. Tickets are $10.00 per person and may be purchased through Emilio Papa at 609-737-1254.

Blessed Be God! Blessed Be His Holy Name!

CENTERING PRAYER

Take time during Lent to deepen your relationship with God through Centering Prayer and Faith Sharing on Tuesday evenings from 7:00-8:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. For more information call Sister Diane at 609-882-8989. All are Welcome!
