Dear ISJ Family,
New Year's resolution!

We hope for a better tomorrow.

The end of one year and the beginning of another is usually a time to look back to what has been and to look forward to what can be. The prophet Joel, inspired by God, spoke as follows: "I will pour out my Spirit on all mankind. Your old people shall dream dreams and your young people shall see visions".

It is important to dream, to try to imagine how, for example, we can help in some small way to make the world a better world. "I have a dream", these words have been immortalized by Martin L. King. The dream was a clear vision of where he wanted to take his people: calling them from bondage to freedom. It was like an Exodus event.

Not all of us are called in this way to be leaders. But all of us are called to make our own contribution to its realization. All are called to make a difference in our own and others lifestyles. Another great visionary of our own time is Nelson Mandela. In just a few short sentences he described his life's journey as "The long walk to freedom". St. Paul, in his letter to the Ephesians, writes about the mystery hidden for all ages in God and which now has been made known to us in Christ. It is the dream or vision of God's plan for the world and the mission of the Church in that plan: to unite all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth.

Jesus, our Savior and God, became man to give us full freedom as Sons and daughters of God. In Jesus and with Jesus we can realize all our dreams and hopes because he said: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart: and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light".

Yesterday cannot be changed. Tomorrow does not yet exist. However, God has taken care of the past and the future. He has forgiven the past. And He shields the future from us. The present is all we have. Therefore, God calls us to make the most of the present moment – so, let's have a MTC day – Make Today Count.

Looking back upon our past journeys, we recall the frightening valleys of darkness and the bright meadows of delight; the cool shade of relaxation and the glorious mountaintops of ecstasy. We remember the busy streets, the shopping centers, the noisy factories, and the quiet offices.

We have walked lonely roads. We have rubbed shoulders on crowded sidewalks. We have driven down busy highways. We remember cooking in the kitchen, the peace in the family room, the fun in the back yard and the food on the dining room table. We have marveled at the sunsets and gazed at the moon. We have seen the mountains and the oceans. In addition, we dream of what will be. We dream and dream. We dream of traveling to a land of bliss. Sure, we can dream dreams, but our priceless gifts are kept in the sacred chambers of our hearts. They cannot be measured by money, power or status. They are gifts to be protected and preserved. The gift of friendship. The gift of marital commitment. Courage in a moment of crisis. Faith in the midst of turmoil. A word of encouragement when all is hopeless. A moment of laughter. A quiet time with God. A time to share our love for one another.

So many of our dreams are tinged with the hope that tomorrow will be different. Yet, we are living today. Yesterday has its memories. Tomorrow its dreams. Clowns have a delightful prayer: Lord, as I stumble through this life, help me create more laughter than tears, dispense more happiness than gloom, and spread more cheer than despair. Never let me grow so big that I fail to see the wonder in the eyes of a child, or the twinkle in the eyes of the aged.

Never let me forget that I am a clown, that my work is to cheer people up, make them happy, make them laugh, and make them forget momentarily all the unpleasant things in their lives. Never let me acquire financial success to the point where I will fail to call upon my Creator in the hour of need, or thank him in the hour of plenty.

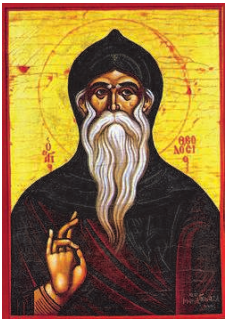

And in my final moment. O Lord, may I hear you whisper in my ear: "when you made MY people smile, you made ME smile."

Have a happy and joyful New Year. I extend my wishes that the New Year be one filled with faith, hope, love, joy, and prosperity for us all. May our Lord and Savior be someone to whom we can turn in our weak, joyful and painful moments. May He be our rock, our shelter and our strength.

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2015

St. Theodosius the Cenobiarch

Feast Day: January 11

Death: 529

Abbot and founder. Born at Garissus, Cappadocia (modern Turkey), in 423, he undertook a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and after meeting with the famed St. Simeon Stylites, he entered a monastery. Later, he was named the head of a church between Jerusalem and Bethlehem, but departed to live as a hermit near the Dead Sea. As he attracted a large number of followers, Theodosius established a monastery which was divided among the various nationalities of the monks (Greek, Armenian, etc.), each with their own church. Appointed by the patriarch of Jerusalem to the post of visitor to all the cenobitical communities of Palestine, he used his influence as cenobiarch to oppose the spread of the heretical doctrines of Eutychianism, displaying such zeal in his preaching that Emperor Anastasius I (r. 491-518), who was sympathetic to the Eutychians, exiled him. Recalled by Emperor Justin soon after Anastasius' death, Theodosius spent his last years in poor health.
