From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad."

What a week is ahead of us in the liturgical life of the Church. Our week begins with the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Gospel is taken from the 14th Chapter of St. Matthew. It continues last week's account of the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand and today Jesus is not in the desert but on the stormy Sea of Tiberius. As the disciples were fishing, Jesus comes to them on the waves and Peter, proud and bold Peter, asks to walk on the waters just like Jesus. He invites Peter to do the same but he begins to see the water and the waves and he panics and begins to drown. He cries out "O Lord save me!" and Jesus pulls him back into the boat. Why did Peter start to drown? Because he took his eyes off of Jesus. Peter knew how to swim he was a fisherman but he turned away from Jesus and looked at everything and everybody except Jesus – and he started to sink like led!!!

Whenever we take our eyes off of Jesus we start to drown. I have come to believe that the Clergy scandal of the last six years came about because we as a Church took our eyes off of Jesus and the Church started to drown. We started to look at psychology and sociology for the answers to our problems, we looked to the government and politics to provide solutions to what was ailing us, we looked to Father This and Sister That and Bishop Someone to be our salvation and it all came crashing down around us. Like St. Peter, we took our eyes off of Jesus and we drowned! And we are only now beginning to recover as we turn our gaze to the Crucified Savior. Brothers and sisters, that is the lesson of today's Eucharistic Sacrifice – never, ever for a moment take your eyes off Jesus. Don't look to any priest or nun or bishop or whomever. We are all useful and helpful but Jesus is the One answer, the only solution to all what we go through in life. Read and reread this Gospel often this week and whatever you endure say always "LORD, SAVE ME!"

Two important Saints adorn the calendar this week. On Monday we celebrate the Feast of St. Clare, the Founder of the Poor Clares. She followed her fellow citizen, St. Francis, in a life of poverty and became mother of an order of nuns. She led a life that was austere, yet rich in works of charity and piety.

Thursday, August the 14th we remember Saint Maximilian Mary Kolbe who was born in Poland on January the 8th 1894 and later became a Conventual Franciscan and in 1918 was ordained a priest in Rome. Out of deep filial devotion to Our Lady, he established the sodality called the Militia of Mary Immaculate and promoted its growth in Poland and other parts of the world. As a missionary in Japan he labored under the patronage of the Blessed Mother to spread the faith. He returned to Poland and during World War II was imprisoned and suffered great hardship in the concentration camp at Auschwitz. His life of dedication was crowned by his supreme sacrifice of charity on August the 14th 1941, when he offered up his own life in place of another prisoner.

Friday, August the 15th we then celebrate the oldest feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Assumption into Heaven. It was not until the first day of November in the year 1950 that Pope Pius XII proclaimed the Doctrine that at the end of Her life, the sinless Virgin Mary was brought to heaven, body and soul, to enjoy the life of the Blessed. The Assumption is the final jewel in the crown of a life that began with the Immaculate Conception and progressed to Bethlehem and Calvary's Cross to the glory of the Resurrection on Easter Day. Today is also called "Lady's Day" in many parts of Europe. Women enjoy extra attention on this day and there is also the belief that if you go swimming on the Assumption that as the tide goes out it will take with it all sickness and disease for the next year. I will see you at LBI!!! Just a reminder: this day is a Holyday of Obligation. Please consult the bulletin for the complete listing of the Masses both at Incarnation and St. James. This is such a wonderful day to renew our love and our dedication to Our Blessed Lady. Special celebrations will take place at Lourdes today as we recall the wonderful events there 150 years ago. "Queen assumed into Heaven, pray for us now – now, and at the hour of our death."

Truly a special, a holy week in the life of the Church this week. Today is also Tuition Sunday when the first installment of tuition for the new academic year is due. Also this Sunday afternoon there will be an open house from noon until 1PM. Our school is being cleaned top to bottom and new carpeting is being installed in the offices and in the library in preparation for the first day of school just a few weeks away. How fast this summer is going by.

May this week be blessed in everyway as we honor the Most Holy Mother of God and ask Her intercession for all our wants and needs.

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
