From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Parish,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad!"

Brothers and sisters, with this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Thirtieth Sunday and Week in Ordinary Time. Four more weeks to go and then we begin the Holy Season of Advent and our preparations for Christmas begin. How fast time is going! This year has just flown by.

As you know, our Religious Community has been involved in our Provincial Chapter the last several weeks. We had elections on Thursday, October the 15th and these are the results:

Provincial – Very Reverend Edward Owens, O.S.S.T.
Vicar Provincial – Very Reverend William Axe, O.S.S.T.
Counselors: Very Reverend James Day, O.S.S.T.
 Very Reverend Stan DeBoe, O.S.S.T.
 Very Reverend Juan Molina, O.S.S.T.

We congratulate our Brothers upon their election and wish them well and pledge to them our cooperation and our full support. Leadership is never easy in any organization, the Church is no exception, so our leaders need our prayerful support. Many other things were discussed at the Chapter dealing with our legislation and our life in common, setting a vision for the next three years. I wish to thank from the bottom of my heart and on behalf of the Parish, Msgr. Hugh Ronan and Father William Lago for ministering to the Parish in our absence. They have always been very generous with their time and support of our Parish and our Community. Thank you, Brothers, for all you have done for us and continue to do. They are fine Priests and exceptional gentlemen.

Today's Gospel is the last passage before Jesus enters Jerusalem. It is a transition passage between Jesus' instruction of the disciples and His final days in the City of Jerusalem. Right before and right after Jesus teaches His disciples about suffering and service, we find stories of Jesus healing blind men. These miracles serve to show how Jesus is attempting by His words to bring spiritual sight to the disciples. The healings of the blind men are also revealing in how they differ from each other. In the first one a blind man is brought to Jesus, and the people who bring him make the request for Jesus to heal him. Jesus takes the man aside and first spits and then touches the man. The result is that the man sees dimly. So Jesus touches the man again, and this results in the man being able to see clearly. This healing comes before all of Jesus' teaching on how to be of service. The progression of the healing suggests how difficult it is to accept the teaching of Jesus and how people have to grow into it. The healing of the blind man in today's Gospel is different from the other healing in several important ways. First, it is the man himself who approaches Jesus and not other people who bring him up. In fact, this second blind man struggles against many who want him to keep quiet and stop calling for Jesus. Second, Jesus heals him quickly and not progressively. This healing appears to signify how the disciples may acquire the spiritual perspective that Jesus has been inculcating in them about service. It is by asking, as the second blind man does three times, for Jesus to give them sight. This prayer is the child-like realization that the Kingdom is a gift that is received. Our daily prayer can be, "Lord, I want to see." We can ask to see Jesus as He truly is, the crucified and risen Lord Who came to call disciples to serve others. We can pray to see the way we are being called to follow the Lord.

This final week of October is a quiet one liturgically speaking. Wednesday, October the 28th we celebrate the Feast of the Apostles, Simon and Jude. Certainly St. Jude is one of the most popular saints on the calendar and devotion to this Apostle has spread throughout the world. He is known as the Patron Saint of hopeless and lost causes and devotion to this Saint was the life-long work of entertainer, Danny Thomas. While he was a struggling actor, he vowed to St. Jude that if he would get a break in show business, he would build a hospital for sick children with cancer in honor of the Saint. Well, he did receive opportunities to advance his career and went on to found one of the greatest medical centers for pediatric oncology in the world, the famous St. Jude Hospital in Tennessee. How many children from all over the world despite their inability to pay for treatment have received the healing graces from dedicated doctors and nurses at this Shrine/Hospital. As you enter the front door, there is a large outdoor statue of St. Jude in a beautiful garden which Danny Thomas personally supervised. Pray often to this Saint of the Impossible for those situations that seem hopeless and without God. St. Jude is a powerful Intercessor with Almighty God. Of course next Sunday, November the 1st is the Solemnity of All Saints. Whether their names are on the calendar or not, the Church honors all those men and women and children who lived lives in close conformity with God. How many "Saints" have touched our lives and we perhaps did not even realize it! Monday, November the 2nd is All Souls Day and it ushers in the Month of the Holy Souls. Where they are one day we shall be. As the Bible tells us "... it is a good and holy thought to pray for the dead so that they may be loosed of their sins." Both of our Churches will have a special altar to remember all our deceased loved ones. We will have our annual Night of Remembrance for the Dead on Wednesday, November the 11th at 7PM Mass at St. James Church. Mark your calendars for this most important event in the life of our Parish.

Just a reminder: this coming Saturday, October the 31st is Loaves and Fishes at St. Mary Cathedral. There is much information in this week's bulletin regarding this annual exercise in charity. If you have time to volunteer, we will see you there. The Parish thanks Deacon Frank and his crew of volunteers for organizing and organizing well this event. We are truly grateful. Remember we are feeding the stricken Christ's of our day. What we do "... for the least of my brothers and sisters you do for me."

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. It is the last week of the month of the Holy Rosary, so try to pray the Rosary each day this week. Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, Pray for us now and at the hour of our death.

In the love of Jesus and Our Lady,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.
