FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRINCIPAL, SISTER PATRICIA O'DONNELL, IHM

I do not want to admit that it is the first weekend in August – the beginning of school is right around the corner. We will be beginning before Labor Day this year. Labor Day is very late and we decided to begin early and therefore end school early June instead of mid to late June – hopefully the gods of cool air will be with us!

Last Sunday we heard the story of the multiplication of the five barley loaves and feeding the hungry crowd. Today, Jesus begins his famous discourse on bread. During this discourse he talks about many kinds of bread: our daily bread, spiritual bread, and manna from heaven. Last week Jesus gave the hungry crowd ordinary bread – “our daily bread.” Today, however, he tells the crowd that they need to be concerned about a different kind of bread. He calls it “the bread of God which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

What is this bread? It is Jesus himself. It is the saving word he speaks. It is the truth of God he speaks. Today Jesus tells us that God the Father “has set his seal” on him. When I purchase something for my family or my personal use or for school, I like to see that there is a seal of approval on it. It makes me feel more confident in my purchase. In today’s Gospel, Jesus guarantees that he is the Truth – he guarantees that he is the Son of God – he guarantees that we are getting a quality “product” when we follow him and are faithful to his teachings. He is the truth that “endures for eternal life.”

What our Lord told the people then, he tells us today. He tells us to always search for the truth – to search for Him in all our encounters, our experiences and situations. What a privilege we have at Incarnation-St. James School – we learn about Jesus, we search for him in our everyday experiences, we speak His name, and pray to him throughout the day. We work hard to give our students the tools and the opportunities to grow in their relationship with Jesus. It is our mission to let them know Jesus – the Truth in our lives.

Thank you for all you do to help us promote this mission! Even though I am not ready for the summer to be over, I am ready for football to begin – Go Fighting Irish and Eagles! Enjoy the rest of these summer days!

Thanks for the opportunity to bring this awareness of our Church's Mission to the people of Incarnation-St. James Parish and to bring their love and support to the needy of the mission countries served by the Missionaries of our lady of la Salette.

*Sincerely yours in our Lord and Lady,
