From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad."

With this Sunday celebration of the Eucharist we begin the Sixteenth Week in the Church's Ordinary Time, and we continue the theme in the Gospel that began last week, considering the various parables of Jesus as recorded in the 13th Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel. Today we hear Jesus' parable of the wheat and the weeds, and when this Gospel is read I know I usually first think of good people (the wheat) and bad people (the weeds) coexisting side by side in an imperfect world until the coming of the Kingdom of God. But every individual possesses something of both the "good" wheat and "evil" weed. Every one of us possesses the ability to do compassionate and just things out of love- but there exists within us the same ability to do destructive things out of selfishness and greed. We all can respond to any situation taking the moral and ethical high ground – but we can usually find some justification for acting out of our own self-interest or devise some rationalization for taking a less demanding and more profitable approach. Discipleship with Jesus recognizes that struggle existing within each one of us but also embraces the hope that, in seeking to imitate the spirit of Jesus' loving servant hood, we may be "wheat" for a world that is often choking in "weeds." How rich is God's Word these summer Sundays. As I often mentioned in the past, there is nothing "ordinary" about Ordinary Time!

Three great Feasts adorn the Church calendar this coming week. Tuesday, July the 22nd we celebrate the feast of St. Mary Magdalene. Over the centuries she went from the town prostitute to the wife of Jesus! The truth is that she was the sister of Martha and Lazarus. First a sinner, she was converted by the Lord Jesus Who raised her brother Lazarus at her prayer. She stood at the cross on that first Good Friday till Jesus sent forth His Spirit. On Easter Sunday morning she was one of the first to visit His Grave and to her did the Risen Savior appear. She then announced to the Apostles that the Lord had indeed risen, earning her the title "Apostle to the Apostles." Tradition holds that after Jesus returned to Heaven, Mary Magdalene and her family settled in southern France to lead the life of a penitent. That's the reason why the "DaVinci Code" is set in France.

Friday, July the 25th we celebrate the Feast of the great Apostle, St. James (not the St. James of our Parish), often called James the Greater. He preached the Gospel in Judea, Samaria and in Spain. On his return to Jerusalem, King Herod condemned him to death by being beheaded in the year 42 A.D. His body was conveyed to Compostella in Spain, and is venerated by many pilgrims. Legends about St. James abound, many believe that his body was brought to Spain in a large clam shell. That is why the shell is the symbol of this great Saint.

Many restaurants serve Clams St. Jacques which honors today's Saint. See what you learn from these Letters! Also today is celebrated the Feast of St. Christopher, the Patron of travelers. How many of us remember the small St. Christopher statue on the dash board of the family car? In 1969 Pope Paul VI dropped him from the Liturgical Calendar but the Saint's popularity continues to grow. In many religious good stores his is one of the most commonly asked for medals or statues.

Finally, on Saturday, the great Feast of Sts. Joachim and Ann, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Grandparents of Our Lord. Tradition tells us that both were aged when Our Lady was born and at the age of three they took their beloved Daughter to the temple to be educated and raised by the priests, perhaps indicating Joachim and Ann were a couple with means. Many believe that St. Ann was present in the stable that first Christmas Night. Devotion to the Mother of the Mother of God is widespread throughout the world, but especially in Brittany, in northern France and, of course, in Quebec, Canada where, no doubt, many parishioners have visited. As the Grandmother of Jesus, St. Ann's prayers are very powerful. Just a reminder: on Saturday, July the 26th St. Ann Church in Bristol, Pa will celebrate the end of the Novena and the Feast Day with a Solemn Mass and candlelight procession beginning at 7 PM. For more information on this beautiful celebration please call (215) 788.2128. The Lord Jesus will never refuse the prayer of His "Nonna."

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. How quickly the summer is passing- try to enjoy each and every day as a gift from the Good God. Begin and end each day by placing yourself in His Holy Presence, offering to Him whatever He may send you as your gift to Him. As the Little Flower, St. Theresa, reminds us: "All will be for Jesus and when I have nothing to give Him, I will give Him my nothing as my gift." May God bless you always and in all ways.

*In the Love of Jesus and Good St. Ann,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
