FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRINCIPAL, SISTER PATRICIA O'DONNELL, IHM

When the Gospel of Matthew places the Beatitudes at the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, I think of it like the pre-game warm up before the main event – or the warm-up band before the main singer. The Beatitudes state some things that sound contradictory to our way of thinking, and it is only after reading the Sermon and the Mount that they begin to make a little more sense.

I have often wondered what Jesus was thinking when he said blessed are you if you are poor or mourning or being persecuted. What did he mean? Did he really mean we should be happy about being poor; be willing to be walked over (meek) and picked on (persecuted), and rejoice in our grief? The Beatitudes have always haunted me – they are like a thorn in my side. Are any of us really excited about being poor in spirit? Does Jesus really understand today's society well enough? Does he know how hard we have worked for money and our savings? But Jesus, who was born in a stable and slept and ate with people who would have him, will not be deterred from his message. He congratulates those who are poor, who recognize that they need God in their lives, who have their treasure in God's love and mercy and not in earthly things. As I have grown older – and hopefully wiser – I have reflected on the 7 subsequent beatitudes all flowing from the first – “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God.” The beatitudes that follow this first one develop some aspect of being “poor” before God.

In our parish Catholic school we are rich with the presence of God. We are able to pray, read the Bible, sing songs about Jesus and attend mass every Friday. The children who attend Incarnation-St. James School are certainly not “poor” in educational opportunities either. Thanks to the generosity of those who made a donation to the Msgr. Ronan Endowment Fund, we were able to purchase one more additional interactive board for our classrooms. This will give us a total of 9 in our school. An interactive board is a tool that allows students and teachers to write on them, as well as project websites and DVD's from their computers onto the boards so that every child in the room can see and participate. Most importantly, with interactive whiteboards in the classroom, we are able to create learning environments where students are actively engaged in the learning process. Student engagement is one of the most important factors that affect teaching and student motivation to learn. These boards help us increase the opportunities for involvement in the lesson beyond just answering the question. Below you will see a picture of a student using one of our boards. You will notice that he is dragging the picture or answer to another place on the board – in this case, the correct punctuation to the end of the sentence. This is one example of how the boards can be interactive.

I am going to take some time this week to re-read the Beatitudes. I think I need to listen carefully to the call and challenge of Jesus – won't you join me? Go Phillies!

OLIVE WOOD CARVINGS FROM BETHLEHEM

Olive Wood Carvings from the Holy Land will be here at Incarnation-St. James parish November 14-15 to ask for your help and blessings for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These 600 Catholic and Christian families have relied on the income of selling their hand-carved religious olive wood artifacts to take care of their families. Due to the recent events in the Middle East, tourism has not been as promising as it once was. 95% of the tourist visit Jerusalem and stay away from Bethlehem due to the conflicts in the area. This has caused a terrible situation, it has caused Christian families to face devastating economical strain, and has caused the population to decrease to less than 2%. This is our only source of income. By purchasing this work you will help the Christian families keep their homes and provide for their families. Thank you for your support.

LOAVES AND FISHES – GREAT RESULTS!

As the parish family members of Incarnation-St.James, we can each feel pleased at the outstanding effort we all put in for this year's loaves and fishes ministry.

Our parish family -- including our school and religious education program:

- made and distributed more than 875 take home lunches,
- prepared a hot, tasty, and nutritious meal of meat loaf, mashed potatoes, and corn with gravy and a dessert of brownies and cookies,
- served a very full dining room for the first seating and a mostly full dining room for the second, and
- cleaned up afterward.

It was successful through God's graces made present through **everyone** at Incarnation-St.James by their donated food, groceries, financial support, work, prayers, or supportive smiles. It was truly a parish extended-family effort.

Let us all also extend a hearty high-five to the folks who volunteered to be part of the Loaves and Fishes '09 Committee and were planning and working weeks ahead of time: Marc and Karen Barbiero, Pete Brennan, Jim Fasoli, Diana Figueroa, Emilio Papa, Janet Scannella.

Thank you! Deacon Frank Golazeski

WOMEN OF JOY - We invite all women of the parish to join us on Saturday, November 14th for a Women's Prayer Breakfast. We will have a great speaker, Sister Antoine Lawlor, Carmelite Spirituality, November 14th from 9:30-11:30 a.m. in the Incarnation Parish Center Room 2-3.
