ISJ is a Great Place to Get Your Start!

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad."

Today's Sunday Eucharist is rich with God's Holy Word. The first reading from the Prophet Zechariah is a Lord's Passion as he sees the Messiah coming to his people peacefully. At this time kings and conquerors always rode on white horses followed by an entire retinue. But Jesus comes "...meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass, banishing chariots and breaking the warrior's bow." How good and gentle God is!

The second Lesson from St. Paul, whose special, holy year we are now observing, is an echo of the Sunday of all Sundays, the Feast of all Feasts, Easter, as he writes of Jesus now risen from the dead. He Who has conquered both sin and death will give us a share in His victory for if we have died with Him we shall also live with Him. Every Sunday, as I have written many times, is Easter, and we need to hear again and again the timeless message that Christ is risen from the dead and by death has conquered death.

Our Gospel this Lord's Day is one of THE most consoling in all the Gospels: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest." When life is dishing out its worst we need the comfort and security of our Savior. When I was younger, so much younger than today (just like the Beatles sang!) I had a St. Joseph Daily Missal and there was a colored plate of Jesus standing dressed all in white with arms outstretched and people variously afflicted clinging to Him for dear life and it was titled "Come to Me." That picture made a profound impact on me and I found myself turning to that picture throughout the Mass which then was in Latin and really did not understand fully all of the prayers that the Priest was reciting. But looking at that picture would give me some hope and consolation, especially when things were not going well at home between my Parents. What an invitation Jesus extends to us when we are going through hell, and everyone has deserted us and life is crumbling down around us. "Come to me" Jesus tells us, "Come to me" when everyone else has run away! We can almost see ourselves clinging to the Lord Jesus as in that Missal picture. What a Savior, what a Redeemer we have in the Lord Jesus! Read and re-read this Gospel often this week, read it when days grow dark and there seems to be little hope, hear again the invitation of the Master: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

Now that the Fourth of July has passed (and I trust everyone had a safe holiday) Summer is in full swing. The pace of the school and the parish somewhat slows down as there are less meetings and the students are enjoying a well-deserved break (with the faculty, I'm sure!) this season provides us with the opportunity to rest a bit and to renew our love and dedication to Jesus.

Beginning next Friday, July the 18th through the 26th, the annual Solemn Novena to St. Ann begins at St. Ann Parish in Bristol, Pa. Every evening Mass, Homily and novena prayers to the Mother of the Mother of God and the Grandmother of Jesus begins at 7 PM. Each evening there is a guest celebrant and homilist. It is perhaps THE most beautiful and impressive Novena there is. The candlelight procession each evening grabs the heart and soul! The complete address and phone number is:

St. Ann Church
357 Dorrance Street
Bristol, PA 19007
(215) 788-2128

What a wonderful, holy way to spend nine days storming heaven for all our needs, both of body and spirit. How can Jesus ever refuse the request of His Grandmother! Could you?

May the week ahead be filled with God's richest blessings. Once again, I thank you for your generous gift of time, treasure and talent to our Parish. You are so precious and loved by me.

In the Love of the Lord Jesus, Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.

In Memoriam

"I am the Resurrection
and the life,
he who believes in me,
though he die,
yet shall he live.
