From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

With this celebration of the Holy Eucharist we begin the Eleventh Week in the Ordinal Time of the Church Year and the Gospels again deal with the theme of the following of Jesus. Now that the great Seasons of Lent and Easter have come to their grand finale, we get down to work, as it were, with the more intense following of Jesus. We need this summons again and again, year after year, to renew our love and dedication for and to Jesus.

Last week we read of the call of Matthew to become a disciple and today we see the Lord Jesus giving all the early disciples their mission to preach that “... the reign of God is at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, heal the leprous, expel demons.” And Jesus ends with the most beautiful words: “The gift you have received, give as a gift.”

Our Gospel this Lord's Day begins with the most beautiful words in all the New Testament: “The heart of Jesus was moved with pity at the sight of the crowd.” When we go through all the hell we have to go through in life – “the heart of Jesus is moved with pity.” When we struggle with addictions and depressions and our kids and grandchildren hurt and disappoint us – “the heart of Jesus is moved with pity.” When we as adult children struggle with aging and dying parents and they now become our children – “the heart of Jesus is moved with pity.” If we have ever questioned the love of God for us and, let's face it, we all do from time to time, this one line from today's Gospel can make a difference. When my Mother was so sick two years ago and I had no family to comfort me I would often repeat this Scripture passage as I walked down the Nursing Home corridor to my Mother's room because from day to day I never knew what I would find. “The heart of Jesus was moved with pity.” Now that my Mother rests in His Heart along with my Father, I find great comfort.

This coming week repeat this Gospel passage often – “the heart of Jesus was moved with pity.”

Today, Brothers and Sisters, we celebrate Father's Day. We honor all those gentlemen who have fathered us in many and varied ways. I would give anything to have my Father back with me just for an hour and to feel his strong, hairy arms around me again. My Father could do anything and tried his best with limited education to provide for us the best life possible. I bitterly regret the years we did not speak to each other because of my Parent's divorce. But when I was ordained a Priest in 1987 until he died in February, 1993 we were Father and Son again. Love your Dad, brothers and sisters, and hold him close if you are still lucky to have him with you. When our Parents are gone the world is a sad and lonely place. To all our Fathers, both living and those who now live with Jesus – Happy Father's Day- Dad, we love you from the bottom of our hearts!

This past Tuesday, June the 10th our Eighth Grade graduated from Incarnation-St. James School. The ceremonies were most beautiful and our graduates made all of us so proud. All the effort and sacrifices we make as a parish family for our school are all worth it. How diminished our parish would be without the life and vigor the school community brings. A parish needs a school to be complete. Perhaps not everything is perfect and many things we have to do without so our students can receive the best possible Catholic education but our investment of time, talent and treasure will yield immeasurable blessings for us now and in eternity. Someone told me at a meeting back in September that we (Catholic Schools) do not educate for Harvard but for Heaven. I responded that we here at Incarnation-St. James do both!!! And, I might add, do it exceptionally well!!! I wish to thank the faculty and staff for all their hard work and dedication this academic year and look forward with renewed confidence and dedication to September.

Finally, we are so happy and delighted that Father Gerard is now with us in the parish. He arrived on Friday and is already settling in his new home. Our three novices will arrive at the end of July to begin their Canonical year in preparation for the profession of First Vows. Transitions are never easy especially for Father Gerard who has spent all of his priestly life in the parish. So let's all welcome Father and the novices and continue to work together to make Incarnation-St. James a model parish of spirituality and ministry.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. You are so loved.

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

Comments from the 8th Grade...

"I have been attending Incarnation-St. James for 9 years. I would like to thank the parish for everything they have done for me. I love this school and parish so much. It was and always will be my home away from home."

Shana Naticchia, Class of '08

"I'd like to thank the community of the parish for giving weekly envelopes to church, which allows my tuition to stay lower so my parents can afford to send me to this school. I am very thankful to the community for everything they do for our school, and the students in 8th grade."

Nick Maida, Class of '08

"I would like to thank Incarnation-St. James parish for all you've done for our school. From the time I came here, this school was different from any other school that I'd been to. We have picnics and many other fun events. The parish donates money to our school, which puts a smile on my face because the parish actually cares about the school. I thank God for leading me to this school to find a loving and caring parish like this. Thank you."

Ashlee Love, Class of '08

"Thank you for everything you've given us. For all the money you've donated to make our school a better place for kids to learn and be kids! Your donations have been put to good use here. Our new gym was built with your donations, and our tuition would be a lot higher if it wasn't for you. We have new computers that are the best in the area – research is a snap because of it! And our lab and library are wonderfully stocked and everything is better. Thank you!"

Lizzie Braun, Class of '08
