From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.”

With these words, the Church and the Liturgy usher in the month of November and All Souls Day. Today and for the rest of the month we remember those who have “gone before us marked with the sign of faith.” This year we are given a wonderful opportunity to pray for all the dead, especially of our families, since All Souls Day falls on Sunday. The Scriptures tell us that “... it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead so that they may be freed of their sins.” Yesterday we celebrated All Saints Day honoring all those who now live with God. Whether their names are on the Church calendar or not, we remember those whose lives were lived in the grace and the fullness of God. Today and for the rest of the month we remember those “saints” who touched our lives and hearts in so many ways.

When we were created, our deaths were not to be an event that separated us from God’s life and love. But when our first parents sinned, our lives were filled with alienation: between ourselves and God, ourselves and each other, and even ourselves and nature. Death became the ultimate alienation. It was no longer a passing from this world to the next. It became a moment of terror!

When Jesus died on the cross, He destroyed that alienation. When Jesus rose on Easter Sunday, He showed us that death was not the end. We have been called to share in God’s eternal life. Even death itself will not change that fact. Death is now what it was always supposed to be, a passing from this state to the next. Jesus is thus Lord of both the living and of the dead. Saint Paul, whose special Year we are commemorating, tells us that Jesus is the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. The first-fruits are generally known for two things. First of all, they are the best. Second, they are the promise of more that will shortly arrive. Jesus is the best of those who have risen from the dead, and He is also a promise to us that will shortly arrive. Jesus is the best of those who have risen from the dead, and He is also a promise to us that we will one day rise from the dead to live with Him in eternity. Adam’s sin brought death into the world. We are not sure whether Paul means physical or spiritual death. Whichever, we were left hopeless due to the power of sin. Now that Jesus has risen from the dead, sin and death no longer have any power over us. Jesus has already risen from the dead, and on the last day we will all rise with Him to share in His glory. This is when Jesus’ defeat of His last enemy, death, will be made manifest, for we will live forever with Him to share in His glory.

So, Brothers and Sisters, let us pray often during this holy month for our beloved dead. Where they are now, one day we shall be. Try to attend Mass throughout this month, visit the grave, and mark it as holy ground. Again, just a reminder that we will have our annual Mass of Remembrance on Wednesday, November the 12th beginning at 7PM at Incarnation Church. All parish families who have lost a loved one since last November have been invited to attend as they hear their beloved’s name called and they light candles in their memory. It has always been a prayerful, tear bright, evening as we pause to pray, to mourn, to remember and to re-commit ourselves to live the rest of our lives remembering those who have touched us deeply and knowing that, one day, we will be reunited forever. What joy, what happiness will be ours! Saint Peter Julian Emyard, the Founder of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, wrote shortly before he died: “How good it is to die in the service of God- to lay by His feet! At that moment one has but one regret: not to have had a thousand lives to have given to the Master, to love Him with a thousand hearts.”

In a different vein, of course this Tuesday, November the 4th is Presidential Election Day. Finally!!! It seems like this campaign has been going on for ten years. The Church urges us to vote since this is a right given us by God. We should vote for those candidates who uphold God’s laws and will execute their offices with honesty and integrity. What decision you make once you are in the voting booth is between you and God. Let that decision be as informed as possible. Let us pray this week for our Nation that the next four years give us a renewed appreciation and love of our great Nation so that we may truly become what the Founders envisioned us to be: “a City set on a hill top for all to see.”

This Friday, November the 7th, is the First Friday of the month of November. We will have our usual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament following the 9AM Student Mass until 4PM with Evening Prayer and Benediction. This monthly “day of retreat” is a wonderful opportunity to refocus our lives and energies on Jesus. Take advantage of this time to “... love Jesus with a thousand hearts.”

Finally, today, All Souls Day, we are having Open House at our Incarnation-St. James School from noon until 2PM. All are invited to see our School in action, the wonderful new technologies that are now in place, the safe, clean surroundings in which our students can learn, pray and grow. All of this is made possible by your never failing generosity of time, treasure and talent. Come and see the miracle you make possible each and every day. Once again, that is Open House for our School today, Sunday, November the 2nd from noon until 2PM.

Also, I cannot conclude this weekly letter without thanking Deacon Frank and all who worked with him in making the parish participation in Loaves and Fishes on October 24-25 so successful! For those of us who had the privilege of being at the Cathedral last Saturday morning we saw many modern-day Christs being fed and loved, if only for a few moments. What a wonderful experience in charity this is. I wish to thank Deacon Frank and all who closely worked with him to make our Parish participation in this program so wonderful. May God continue to bless you always and in all ways.

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

Loaves and Fishes Thank you!

Wow! Once again the 2008 Loaves and Fishes Meal serving was a smashing success this past weekend. How proud we can feel as a parish and school for our wonderful team effort to gather donations, food, groceries, and volunteers for the sake of helping a local precinct of God's kingdom on earth by providing a hot meal, "take home" lunches, helping hands, and smiles for our hungry brothers and sisters.

Thank you to YOU, the many Incarnation-St.James parishioners and school families who helped make it all happen. Many who gave their time in being on hand Friday night to make sandwiches and lunches, collect the food that was dropped off, and haul everything to St. Mary's in vans and trucks. Likewise, to Saturday's many volunteers who set-up, worked the kitchen, served breakfast and dinner, and, whew, cleaned up. I would like to extend a hearty extra tip of the hat to the folks who volunteered to be part of the Loaves and Fishes '08 Committee and were planning and working on this project weeks ahead of time: Marie Agocs, Marc and Karen Barbiero, Pete Brennan, Jim Fasoli, Emilio Papa, Janet Scanella, and Barbara Stradling. Thank you! Deacon Frank Golazeski
