ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD

Please pray for the repose of the soul of: Francisco (Franco) Repollet, William Grocott and Michael Lupo. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on them forever." (Liturgy for the Dead)

With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Thirty-Third Week in Ordinary Time. Next Sunday, the great Solemnity of Christ the King, and Ordinary Time will reach its grand finale. It's hard to believe that another Church Year is about to end. In just two weeks, the Holy Season of Advent will open the curtain anew on the Birth, the Life and Death and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. How wonderful this yearly commemoration of the saving events of Salvation History by which we are made new in Jesus. Every time we complete another Church Year, we are drawn into ever deeper communion with the Most Blessed Trinity. And, after all, is this not the purpose of our lives here on earth?

The Second Reading from today's Eucharist captures the theme of the end times of which these last weeks of Ordinary Time portray. St. Paul writes to the Thessalonians concerning the imminent return of the Lord Jesus. In the early Church, there was a belief that Jesus would return in glory within a very short while. St. Paul, in fact, recommends to the Corinthians that they not get married because the end of the world was at hand. But when the end of the world failed to appear, people began to believe that maybe the return of Jesus would not happen immediately. Nevertheless, it was important that people be ready for it whenever it might occur. They began to speak of it occurring unannounced, like a thief in the night. They would not know when, but they should always be ready. St. Paul concludes his letter today with an admonition to be children of the light. They were to reject everything that hinted of the Evil One, and to choose to live in the ways of the Lord. It bears repeating: "We are not of the night or of darkness."

Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober." This theme is so pronounced during these closing days of Ordinary Time and indeed, it continues for the first half of the Advent Season. On this Sunday that theme is crystal clear. This year, with the sequence of the first two Sundays in November, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed and then the anniversary of the Dedication of St. John Lateran, all with their own proper Readings, that "end of the world" theme has been somewhat missing. Today we have it in all of its fullness. It is good, from time to time, to consider our final end if for no other reason it keeps us from becoming too absorbed in this present life. Everything we have and everything we are is passing away and returning to God Who is its Author and Source.

As St. Paul reminds us in many of his Epistles, we have here no lasting city but an eternal one in Heaven. So this month of November is the perfect time to reflect on the four last things: Heaven, Hell, Death and Judgment. There is a whole discipline in Theology called Eschatology which deals with this very subject. Jesus is the Lord and Master of Human History, His Death and Resurrection is at its very core. Everything lives and dies for Him Alone. This fact must be at the center of all of our reflections on our final end in this world to our eternal beginning with God forever. What joy, what happiness will be ours!!!

Several improvements are being completed in our Parish these November days. The back parking lot of Incarnation Church, adjacent to the School, as been resurfaced, hopefully preventing individuals from falling and water collecting in pools and then freezing in the cold weather. In addition, all the entrances to the Church have been painted and the front steps of the Church have been repaired. Also a light is being installed on the side of the Church for added safety.

The Prayer Gardens at both worship sites continued to be worked with St. James progressing very well. I called Father Albert on Election Day and invited him to come from Rome to bless and dedicate the new Grotto and Prayer Garden at St. James Church on Sunday, May the 3rd. He is asking Father General for permission to travel to the States for this important day. Not only will the Shrine to Our Lady of Good Remedy be dedicated but it will also be our annual May Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary. So this gives us all something to look forward to with eager anticipation. A few weeks before on Palm Sunday, April the 5th following the 11AM Mass, the Prayer Garden at Incarnation will also be blessed along with the newly installed Stations of the Cross. All of this and more can be accomplished because of your never failing generosity to our Parish and to our School. Without you none of this would ever happen. As last week's Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Cathedral reminded us- We, You and I, are the Church of Jesus Christ. How proud we should be of our Parish Church. And finally, a very generous benefactor has purchased the Three Children of Fatima for our Grotto of Our Lady on Pennington Road. What a delight to view this shrine as we drive past the Church on what must be one of the busiest roads in Ewing and Trenton. Motorists have stopped and told me how beautiful they find our Parish. How wonderful it is to hear such good news.

This coming week, in addition to the usual Monday Evening Religious Education Classes, on Tuesday will be the monthly meeting of the Parish Council and also the St. Vincent De Paul Society and on Wednesday, an information evening for the parents of our Students who will receive the Sacrament of Penance for the first time on Saturday, December the 6th. On Saturday, May the 2nd, they will receive Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion. By next week-end, the Feast of Christ the King, we hope to have the annual Giving Tree up and in place decorated with various tags from area charities depending on our generosity. They are being put up early to give everyone ample opportunity to purchase the Christmas gifts and return them to the Church so they can be distributed in time for the Holy Days. Once again, so many people depend on you for help. Thank you in advance.

May this second to the last Week in Ordinary Time be filled with every grace and blessing. Please remember to pray for our beloved deceased during this holy month of November. Where they are now, one day we shall be. So let us always be mindful of their union and communion with us.

In the Love of Jesus and Our Lady, Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.

OLIVE WOOD CARVINGS FROM BETHLEHEM

On a noble mission Sam and Nibal from the Holy Land will be here at Incarnation-St. James parish November 22-23 to ask for your help and blessings for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These 600 Catholic and Christian families have relied on the income of selling their hand-carved religious olive wood artifacts to take care of their families. Due to the recent events in the Middle East, tourism has not been as promising as it once was.
95% of the tourist visit Jerusalem and stay away from Bethlehem due to the conflicts in the area. This has caused a terrible situation; it has caused Christian families to face devastating economical strain, and has caused the population to decrease to less than 2%.
This is our only source of income. So we bring this work to the United States to help and support these Christian families. By purchasing this work you will help the Christian families keep their homes and provide for their families. Thank you for your support.

*"Over the river and through the woods,
to Grandmother's house we go!
Hooray for the fun!
Is the pudding done?
Hooray for the pumpkin pie!"*
