From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of our Parish,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad!"

We are coming to the end of the Church's Year of Grace. With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next Sunday is the Great Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe and the current Church Year comes to its grand conclusion. Several years ago, the biblical scholar Luke T. Johnson wrote that over the last half-century Catholics have lost their clear sense of how things will come to an end. We recite the Creed weekly at Sunday Mass, professing that "...He will come to judge the living and the dead," and that "... we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come," yet if many Catholics were asked how they are preparing for the "four last things" (death judgment, heaven and hell), they would look at you quite blankly. By contrast, today's readings comes from a time when "what happens next" was very much on people's minds. The Book of Daniel with its vision of the Archangel Michael, guardian of the Jewish people, arising and awakening those who sleep in the dust of the earth was written to comfort and give hope to a people suffering under a cruel King who persecuted and killed Jewish believers.

The chapter in Mark's Gospel that we hear today at Eucharist, part of a longer discourse in which Jesus' words speak of a day when the Son of Man will come in the clouds with great power and glory and gather His elect, was written to give hope to the early Christian Church persecuted by the Roman Emperor Nero. We do not know exactly how things will end, but we do know that God will be there, that Christ will come again, and that we are not meant to end in the dust bin of history. As the psalm refrain reminds us today: "You are my inheritance, O Lord!" We pray that we will remain watchful, living in hope, no matter how dark it sometimes appears to be. The promise of God to be with us all our days, the assurance of Christ to be with us until the end of time, the gift of the Holy Spirit as the ongoing presence of God in our midst, guiding and praying with and for us, bring assurance that we are not abandoned. You are my inheritance, loving God, loving us to the end.

Today's Gospel begins by describing the final coming of Jesus in spectacular terms: the moon's light going out, stars falling, "... the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory" and angels being sent throughout the earth to gather the elect. Psychological studies have shown that vivid imagery has a great capacity to capture people's attention. The passage then holds the attention of its audience by assuring them that these world-changing events would occur before the present generation passes away.

This seems to imply that some in Jesus' own generation would experience these events. Opening the experience of world transformation up to future generations, however, we hear Jesus' caveat: "But of that day or that hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." Now that our attention is riveted by the action of God on the horizon, Mark goes on to tell us, in the verses beyond today's Gospel reading, how to be prepared for it. Followers of Jesus are to watch, like the doorkeeper, looking for the master's return no matter what hour of the day or night. To stress how all Christians are to live in such attentive expectation of God's transformation, Jesus concludes, "What I say to you I say to all: Watch." One watches by being there for others in need. This is shown when shortly Jesus will say to Peter, James and John in Gethsemane, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death, remain here and watch." So as we can see from this reflection today's Sunday Eucharist is one of the most dramatic of the entire Church Year.

Next Sunday, November the 22nd will be our annual Eucharistic Day to honor Our Lord Present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. After the 9:30 AM Mass at St. James, the Eucharist will be exposed for adoration throughout the day until 4PM when it will conclude with Solemn Evening Prayer (Vespers) and Benediction. What a wonderful demonstration of our faith in the greatest Sacrament there is by spending time with our Eucharistic Lord. It is a most fitting way to conclude this Church year of Grace, prepare for Thanksgiving which is the following Thursday, and also to start the holy Season of Advent which begins on Sunday, November the 29th. This is such a wonderful time of the year, a time of prayer and introspection and when these holy moments occur we should try to take full advantage of them. Also next week-end the annual "Giving Tree" will be featured in the Sanctuary. We have decided to put it up early this year because of the economy and it provides our parishioners and our friends a bit longer time to purchase the gift item requested. This has been a long-standing tradition in the parish for many years and one that helps so many to have a Christmas filled with joy and happiness. So whatever you can do, no gift is too small or insignificant to matter. These are the gifts we buy ultimately for Jesus.

Liturgically speaking, this is a quiet week. Saturday is the Feast of the Presentation of Mary in the temple. Tradition holds that the parents of Our Lady, Sts. Joachim and Ann, presented their daughter at the age of three in the temple to be reared by the priests. For the Orthodox Church this is a significant feast of Our Lady and so named the day The Entrance of the Theotokos to the Temple. While considered a feast of Our Lady it is seen as a hint of the coming Christmas Solemnities. Saturday is also the birthday of one of our Novices, Brother Richard Giner. If you see Brother Richard, please wish him a happy birthday and a year filled with the Lord's blessings.

Just looking ahead for a moment. The Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 10AM at Incarnation Church. That will be the only Mass for the day. The day after Thanksgiving, we return to the normal schedule with 6:45 AM at Incarnation and 8:00 AM at St. James. There will be no school Mass the day after Thanksgiving.

May this next to the final week of the Church Year be filled with every grace and blessing. Remember to continue to pray for all of the Faithful Departed as we continue the Month of the Holy Souls, the Month of November.

*In the love of Jesus and Our Lady,
Fr. Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

OLIVE WOOD CARVINGS FROM BETHLEHEM

Olive Wood Carvings from the Holy Land will be here at Incarnation-St. James parish November 14-15 to ask for your help and blessings for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These 600 Catholic and Christian families have relied on the income of selling their hand-carved religious olive wood artifacts to take care of their families. Due to the recent events in the Middle East, tourism has not been as promising as it once was. 95% of the tourist visit Jerusalem and stay away from Bethlehem due to the conflicts in the area. This has caused a terrible situation, it has caused Christian families to face devastating economical strain, and has caused the population to decrease to less than 2%. This is our only source of income. By purchasing this work you will help the Christian families keep their homes and provide for their families. Thank you for your support.

All Souls

The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. During November, as in all of Ordinary Time (Time After Pentecost), the Liturgy signifies and expresses the regenerated life from the coming of the Holy Spirit, which is to be spent on the model of Christ's and under the direction of His Spirit. As we come to the end of the Church year we are asked to consider the end times, our own as well as the world's. The culmination of the liturgical year is the Feast of Christ the King. "This feast asserts the supreme authority of Christ over human beings and their institutions.... Beyond it we see Advent dawning with its perspective of the Lord's coming in glory.

" — The Liturgy and Time, A.G. Mortimort

PARISH EUCHARISTIC DAY FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

Next Sunday, November 22nd, is our Annual Parish Eucharistic Day.
Come spend some quiet time in Adoration of Our Lord truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Begins at the end of the 9:30 a.m. Mass at St. James.

ADORATION following Mass until 4:00 PM
REPOSE at 4:00 PM with Vespers and Benediction.

Christ
The King

Dear Fr. Houde,

Thank you very much for the generous World Mission Sunday contribution of $2,300.00 from the people of Incarnation-St. James Parish.

"Miracles." That's what Margaret Mweshi saw happening in her native Zambia, thanks to the efforts of missionary Sisters serving among children there. Inspired by their example, she decided to become a Sister just like them, and now works to make "miracles" of her own happen, as she directs a home for children with disabilities.

"I soon realized that I had to do more than provide medical help for these children," Sister Margaret says, "I had to be a mother to them too. I knew that I had to show these children the kind of love that comes from a good mother."

As a parish, you too have been "family" to your brothers and sisters throughout the Missions. Your sacrifices will be joined to those from around our country to provide help for such life-giving, hope-filled service as Sister Margaret's in more than 1,150 dioceses throughout the Missions. Know that you are in my prayers-and in the prayers of the people of the Missions.

Gratefully in the Lord, Rev. Msgr. Richard Tofani, Diocesan Director
