ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD

Please pray for the repose of the soul of: Samuel Guarino. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Pope Benedict XVI says that faith makes us light, enabling us to escape our own gravity which drags us down. The terrible trial of a chronically ill child could have wrecked the Canaanite woman's spirit, weighing her down with despondency and defeat. But faith lifts her from the heaviness of hopelessness and carries her to the “holy mountain” who is Christ. The promise proclaimed by Saint Paul – that God desires to have mercy on all – moves the woman beyond the burden of fatalism and doubt. Before the Answer who is Jesus she will not take no for an answer. Even Jesus' silence does not dissuade her. Instead, it serves to steel her belief, showing her a new tact by which to beg for what God is eager to give her. As Marthe Robin so insightfully writes: “My God, your silence replies better than the many fervors of my love for you.” The challenge of this Sunday in Ordinary Time is for us to pray for an increase of faith, faith that the Lord Jesus can and will do great things for us as He did for the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel.

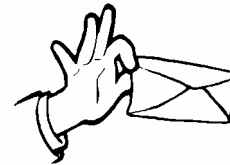

This Friday, August the 22nd we celebrate the Feast of the Queenship of Mary. That feast reminds us that holiness means depending on God totally. The Queenship of Mary invites us to exercise our obedience to God in a way that results in, not submission, but likeness. Saint Maximilian Kolbe writes that Mary “has a right to be loved as Queen of all hearts so that through her hearts would be cleansed and themselves become immaculate, similar and like unto her own heart, and so worthy of union with God.” A queen enjoys full power, even with regard to the king. Mary's fullness of power is expressed in her intercession for us and her mediation of graces so that we receive all personal graces from God our Father.

In a different vein, this week St. Ann's Parish in Bristol, PA is having their 11th annual Parish Carnival. I cannot believe eleven years has passed since the first gathering. I was stationed in Bristol and the first night of the first carnival rained and rained. If you have a free evening sometime this week go and check out the rides, the food and have lots of fun. The Carnival begins on Monday and goes through Saturday from 6PM until 10PM. The Parish phone number is (215) 788-2128. Please call for more details. One night this week I plan to attend along with Father Gerard and our three novices.

Last week we had a very successful Tuition Sunday and Open House for our School. The School's main business office as well as Sister Patricia's office have new carpeting as well as the library. Our maintenance staff has worked very hard this summer to paint, strip and wax all the floors of all the classrooms and main hallways. Our Incarnation-St. James is a source of pride for our Parish and the Diocese. School begins on Tuesday, September the 2nd.

This past Friday, the Solemnity of the Assumption, marked my first anniversary of coming to our Parish to be the Pastor. I am very grateful to all of you for all you have done to help me make our Parish one of the finest in our Diocese. We have much to be proud of and thankful for. This new year will be even better than the last as we work for the building up of the Kingdom of Jesus here at Incarnation-St. James. I promise I shall try to serve you with my whole heart and soul. If I have failed any of you in the past year, if I did not measure up to your expectations, I humbly ask your forgiveness. Please continue to pray for me and for our Parish that we may always be a people of prayer, holiness, faith and a welcoming hand to those who desperately need us. Let us begin anew and in the words of President John Kennedy as he began his presidential administration: “... realizing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own.”

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

COLLECTION FOR THE WEEK OF

August 9-10, 2008: $10,554.00

Our Second Collection next weekend is for the Mobile Meals of Trenton/Ewing. Please be generous.

Thank you for your ongoing Catholic Stewardship and support of our Incarnation - St. James Parish Family. Nothing can be done without you, your participation and generosity in time, spirit and financial support.

A Thank You

To those in the Parish who may have taken out an ad in the bulletin during our recent renewal period! It is your support that provides the weekly bulletin. And again, I request all parishioners to consider using the services of those companies and professional services who advertise in the bulletin. We are fortunate to have these local businesses provide this benefit to our parish family.

He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply,

"O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. - Mt 15:26-28

MOBILE MEALS OF TRENTON/EWING WEEKEND IS AUGUST 23-24, 2008

VOLUNTEER TODAY!

YOUR COMMUNITY NEEDS YOUR HELP!

Who we are: Mobile Meals is a volunteer organization dedicated to delivering meals, prepared by Capital Health System, to people in the Greater Trenton/Ewing area who are homebound due to illness or age.

What you can do: We currently have openings for volunteers to be drivers and runners on our routes in your area! All new volunteers will receive an orientation and are trained by staff and an experienced volunteer. This experience is a great way to meet new people in your community and to become involved in a satisfying and rewarding experience!

When: We have openings for permanent volunteers and for alternates, Monday through Friday. We will work with your schedule and commitment availability. Even one day per month for 2 hours would be greatly appreciated.

What to do next: Call Mobile Meals and speak with our Director of Volunteers, Mrs. Pat Jones at 609-695-3483. Tell her you are a ready, willing and able Incarnation-St. James Parish volunteer. We look forward to meeting you!

SPECIAL COLLECTION: Please include a separate donation envelope marked Mobile Meals the weekend of August 23-24, 2008 and put it in the Church Collection basket with your regular weekly envelope. Your generosity is needed to help Mobile Meals of Trenton/Ewing continue their vital mission!
