By Connie & Sam Arnone

ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO HIM, O LORD

Please pray for the repose of the soul of: Joseph J. Kovacs. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

With the celebration of the Liturgy this Lord's Day we begin the Twenty-Ninth Week in Ordinary Time. There are only five more weeks and this Church's year of Grace comes to its grand finale with the Solemnity of Christ the King. Can you believe how fast time is flying by? Before you know it, Christmas will be here! Are you ready???

Our Gospel is the famous “Render to Caesar” taken from the twenty-second Chapter of St. Matthew. The Pharisees and the Herodians (scholars are not entirely sure who they were) had already decided that Jesus was dangerous, and they wanted to trap Him in a misstatement that would get Him into trouble. If Jesus answered that they should pay their taxes to Caesar, then the Jews of Israel who judged the Romans to be an occupying power would be opposed to Jesus. If, on the other hand, Jesus were to answer that they should not pay taxes, then they could accuse Him of opposing Roman authority and they could denounce Him to the Roman Procurator, Pontius Pilate. Jesus fully understood the trap that they had set for Him. Ironically, they said they were approaching Jesus with this question because they considered Him to be a truthful man. They were not concerned with the truth at all. The only thing that interested them was subterfuge. Hence, Jesus responds with an answer that confounds them- they should give to Caesar what is Caesar's and give to God what belongs to God.

Most scholars of the Scriptures place this coin incident on Palm Sunday so we are just a few days away from Good Friday and the end of the life of Jesus. That is why there has been a contentious tone to the Gospels these last few weeks. Jesus is in a hurry to get out all of His teachings and nothing will stop Him. Jesus Himself gave to Caesar!!! Everyone who exercises authority over others has obtained that authority from God. This is why the Scriptures call upon us to obey and pray for governors and kings and judges. We have to respect them, not because they are necessarily good people or even because they do a good job, but because God has given them authority. It is important to remember that these sentiments were written when those ruling were often tyrants.

In addition to this wonderful Gospel, today is Mission Sunday throughout the Catholic Church. Today we pray for all who carry the Gospel to all parts of the world. Theirs is not an easy job. Our giving of our time, treasure and talents goes a long way to aid these heroic men and women, both Religious and Lay, who preach Christ crucified to all the nations. The second collection in all Churches throughout the world will benefit this great Mission of the Church Catholic. By virtue of our Baptism, we are all called by Jesus to spread the Good News of God's Kingdom. So whatever help we can give whether it is spiritual or financial will be greatly blessed by God.

Today is also a great day of joy because the Parents of the Little Flower, St. Theresa of the Child Jesus, Zelig and Louis Martin are being beatified by the Holy Father. Zelig Martin died while Theresa was a small child but her Father, Louis, died a very painful death due to almost insanity. He was in a psychiatric ward for many years and this caused the Little Flower great agony and much pain. Those who suffer from this terrible affliction now have a Patron Saint to intercede for them. One more miracle needs to be reported and investigated before we can truly call them Saints. We pray that the day may soon arrive!

Liturgically speaking, this week is rather quiet as regards to the Saints Day that are celebrated. Those days on which there is no Saint commemorated are referred to as “Ferial” days taken from the Latin meaning “free”. Very often the Mass from the previous Sunday is celebrated again or a special Mass called “Votive” is offered. Votive Masses for the Dead or in honor of the Sacred Heart or Our Blessed Lady are the most common. On ferial days we celebrate totally the Paschal Mystery of Jesus dead and risen from the dead. So, I suppose in one sense, there is no such thing as a “quiet” week in the Liturgy.

This coming Saturday, October the 25th our Parish is involved with Loaves and Fishes at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption. This annual exercise in charity is vitally important for our Parish because we experience first hand what it means to minister to the stricken Christs of our day, His poor and hopeless. As always we are most grateful to Deacon Frank and all who assist him in organizing and beautifully executing all the details. This is no easy task but it is done with much love and dedication. Our Parish family of Incarnation-St. James really has something to be very proud. The hands in which we place the food is truly the wounded hands of Jesus for “... when you do it to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do it for me.” Faith tells us that they are not needy, homeless men and women and children but Jesus Himself. How can we resist the invitation of the Divine Master!

Since this is the last full week of October, remember to pray the Rosary with great devotion. Our Lady promised great graces to those who pray Her special prayer. And long after the month of October is over we should continue with this wonderful devotion. No one can continue in sin and be devoted to the Rosary at the same time. O Queen of the Holy Rosary, pray for us.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and every blessing. Please, please pray for me.

*In the Love of Jesus and our Lady,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
