From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of our Parish,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The message and mission of Jesus are too important to let rejection overcome them. This is the point that Mark's Gospel makes today. Jesus has been teaching to his hometown but has been rejected there. He responds with persistence, continuing His teaching in nearby villages. In fact, Jesus responds to rejection by increasing the dispersion of His message and mission. He doubles up His efforts by sending out the apostles to different locales to drive out unclean spirits, preach, and heal. Rejection is met with renewed vigor.

In the process Jesus assures the apostles that they will be provided for when they focus on the mission. This is why He tells them not to take food, sack, money or a second tunic, and to stay at the house they enter. Rejection is still to be expected from some. This will not, however, prevent acceptance by others of the apostles' message or the arrival of the reign of God in the healing of people's lives.

Rejection of the message of Mark's Jesus is never the last word and so proclaiming the message must continue despite all setbacks. Although the lack of faith in His own hometown caused Jesus not “to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying His hands on them” the apostles whom Jesus sends elsewhere “drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.” The tactile healings that are few in one place are followed by tactile healings that are many in another locale. With persistence in spreading the gospel message, rejection becomes a spring board for ever greater success.

Traveling by plane these days call for careful preparation. One airline recently posted notice that if your bag weighs more than fifty pounds, there is an additional fee of fifty dollars. Add in the restrictions placed on carry-on baggage: no liquids more than three ounces, no bags beyond a certain size. It encourages you to travel light. Jesus is issuing His own travel instructions to those He chose to work with Him. First, He gives them “authority over unclean spirits”, a sharing in the authority the Father has given Him for the work of spreading the Gospel that the reign of evil is over and the reign of God is just beginning. Then Jesus gets practical: take nothing but a walking stick – to be used in climbing hills, driving off wild animals, or pushing away snakes found on the paths. No food, no sack to hold extra clothing – not even a second tunic – or to carry of anything from the towns you visit, and no money! Permission granted to wear sandals.

Finally, when you get to a place, do not look for the most comfortable lodging, take what comes first and be content there. The focus is clear: Stay on message – God's Kingdom is at hand. Repent and believe. And show it in action: Deliver the sick and possessed from what burdens them. If people don't like the message? Move on.

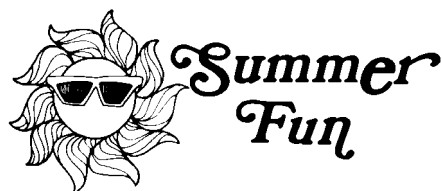

Over two thousand years later, Jesus, the Risen Lord, continues to call ordinary folk. Back then it was some fishermen, a tax collector, a political activist, now it's workers from every way of life, every profession and job. People raising families, singles, the elderly, anyone willing to confess that God is at work in our world, that evil will not have the last word, and that all creation finds its deepest meaning in the Lord Jesus Christ.

This Thursday we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Of all the titles of Our Blessed Lady this one seems to be the most dear to her. Veneration of Our Lady under this title is as old as Christianity itself. From the earliest times, men and women lived in community life on the slopes of Mt. Carmel and dedicated themselves to Our Lady. Wearing the Brown Scapular is a sure sign that the wearer is dedicated to the Blessed Mother. In an apparition to St. Simon Stock, Mary promised that She would deliver from Purgatory on the first Saturday after death anyone who dies wearing the Brown Scapular. Many blessings are had by those who have a strong devotion to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. The last apparition of Our Lady to St. Bernadette at Lourdes occurred on July the 16th 1858 and Bernadette said that never did Our Lady look more beautiful. Pray often to the Blessed Mother as a good remedy for all our difficulties and trials.

Finally please mark your calendars for Sunday, August the 2nd at the 9:30 AM Mass at St. James. Our three novices will profess their First Vows. This is the first time in the history of our Parish that a Profession of Vows has ever taken place in the Parish. All are invited to attend. Sunday, August the 16th again at the 9:30 AM Mass Father Albert will dedicate the Grotto of Our Lady of Good Remedy. This marks the completion of a year-long project and we are all very grateful that the day of dedication is near. God has really blessed our Parish with beautiful grounds on which to pray and to come close to Jesus.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. How quickly the Summer is flying by! Before you know it, it will be Christmas!

*In the Love of Jesus and
Our Lady of Mt. Carmel,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
