From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad.”

With the celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Eighteenth Week in the Church's Ordinary Time. It does not seem possible that we are already in the first full week of August, with Labor Day only a few weeks away. Soon our School will be open and another academic year will begin. For most parents "... it's the most wonderful time of the year!" The Church Year, too, is proceeding quickly and today we begin the 14th Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel. Today we read of Jesus feeding the five thousand with five loaves of bread and two fish. The pity of Jesus Christ always results in a new creation. Christ is not scandalized by human need and want. Rather, the Lord regards every experience of human lack as a prime opportunity to manifest God's lavishness.

From the earliest days, God has beckoned us, promising, "Come, all who are thirsty! Come you who have no money!" The Lord delights in the dependence that our need evokes, and He answers it – in today's "deserted place" with bread and fish, and in the Upper Room with His very Body and Blood for the life of the world. Trial, distress, hunger, and danger do not separate us from the love of Christ. Rather, they draw Him close to us with a love that conquers all. Jesus satisfies every longing, every desire, every passion of the human heart. Before He died, Jesus wanted to leave some sort of memorial of His life and death, something for us to always remember, for us to do "... in memory of Me!" All creation passed before Him in review and on the last night of His life on earth, Jesus gathered the 12 around Him and He gave them and us the greatest memorial, the greatest gift: that of His own self, His very Body and Blood. Jesus knew that our hearts were made for love, made for God and nothing less will ever, ever satisfy them. This miracle of the feeding of the five thousand pales in comparison to the greatest miracle of the feeding of our hearts and souls with the Eucharist.

Almost every miracle Jesus performed pointed in some way to the greatest miracle of the Eucharist. We see the ineffable love He had for us; how His deep love for us poured into us totally; how He handed Himself over to us totally and for always. So, in the very truest sense, today's Liturgical Action is Eucharistic in its very essence. Again, every Sunday is Easter when we celebrate again and again the dying and rising of Jesus to new life. The mystery of Easter is also that of Jesus giving Himself to us completely without reservation of any kind. When the crowd in today's Gospel ate the bread and fish of the miracle they were soon hungry again. When we eat the Bread from Heaven, we satisfy ourselves for eternity! What an awesome Mystery we celebrate week after week!

Our week is brimming over with holy feasts. Monday we celebrate St. John Vianney, the Cure of Ars. He was born in Lyons in France in the year 1786. After overcoming many difficulties, he was ordained a priest. He was entrusted with a parish in the town of Ars in the diocese of Belley. He cared for this parish in a marvelous way by his preaching, his mortification, prayer and good works. Since he was renowned for great skill in helping penitents, people came to him from many regions and devoutly accepted his counsels. He died in 1859.

On Tuesday, August the 5th we celebrate the dedication of the Basilica of St. Mary Major or also known as Our Lady of the Snows. After the Council of Ephesus in the year 431 in which Our Lady was proclaimed Mother of God, Theotokos in Greek, Pope Sixtus III erected in Rome on the Esquiline Hill a church dedicated to the honor of the holy Mother of God. It was afterward called St. Mary Major and is the oldest Church in the West dedicated to the honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. (Editor's note – hint, hint, August 5th is also our pastor, Father Daniel's Birthday)

On Wednesday, August the 6th we celebrate one of the great festivals of the Lord in the year, the Feast of the Transfiguration. Christ's Tabor radiance is a kind of mirror in which we glimpse the glory that God wills to give His friends. The resplendence of the Transfiguration reveals the fullness of life destined to be ours. This Mystery invites us to configuration. We peer into the glory that pours from every pore of the transfigured Christ, we cast off everything unworthy of our personal relationship with the Infinite, and we take on the luster of the Son of God. Jesus gazes back at us with a luminous look of love that makes us desire to live His transparent beauty – to be luminaries. Silently from Tabor's splendor, the Savior begs: "Become what you behold!" In the early ages of the Church, the forty days between August the 6th and the Feast of the Holy Cross, September the 14th were observed like Lent, with fasting and abstaining from meat products. The Liturgy always presents us with opportunities to get our spiritual lives in shape.

Truly from these reflections we can see that the week ahead is very holy. May Jesus and His Mother continue to bless you always and in all ways. Enjoy these holy, summer days!

*In the Love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
