From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

This is the day the Lord has made we rejoice and we are glad!

Today, brothers and sisters, this Holy Day we celebrated another great event in the life of the Lord Jesus – His Baptism in the Jordan River by John the Baptist. With this act, Jesus begins His three year ministry of preaching and teaching and later His suffering and dying as the anointed Messiah of God. Last Sunday, the great Festival of the Epiphany, we celebrated the revelation of Jesus to the entire world by means of a brilliant star. What was made known to the Shepherds Christmas Night is now made manifest to every nation on earth.

Last Sunday was the first great Epiphany, the first great manifestation of Jesus to the world. Today, we remember a second, and perhaps an even greater revelation of Jesus. Now we meet an adult Jesus in the gospel, no longer the Infant Jesus lying in the crib, but a mature Man of about thirty years old. He comes to the banks of the Jordan River where John was baptizing and asks to be plunged into the River's mighty and muddy waters.

Jesus chose this act of being baptized to begin His saving ministry. Today He is plunged into the waters, on Good Friday He will be plunged into the waters of death. Today Jesus is buried beneath the waters, on Good Friday He will be buried in a cold stone tomb. Today Jesus is immersed fully into our human nature. What He took on in the great mystery of the Incarnation, today He fully becomes. And today, Jesus is revealed to the world not by a star but by God.

As Jesus comes out of the waters the voice of God the Father is heard: "This is my Beloved Son in Whom I am well pleased – listen to Him." And with that, the Spirit of God descends on Jesus in the form of a Dove. This Holy Day, the entire Trinity is revealed on the banks of the Jordan.

In the Eastern Church, today's celebration of the Lord's Baptism is far greater than the Magi bringing their gifts. Today nothing less than God Himself is made known to the entire world. Indeed, today is the real Epiphany, the real Theophany, the real and full revelation of God among us.

Next Sunday, the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, we will remember the third Epiphany of the Lord Jesus, the miraculous changing of water into wine at the marriage feast of Cana. The Gospel writer St. John tells us: "Thus did Jesus perform the first of His miracles and His disciples came to believe in Him."

The first Epiphany was by means of the star, the second by the Father Himself, the third by the great miracle of water made wine. Today Christ is baptized and the whole world is made holy, he wipes out the debt of our sins; we will all be purified by water and the Holy Spirit. What a grand and glorious Feast today is, a grand finale to the Christmas Season.

Next week, brothers and sisters, we will begin to speak on the 2008 Bishop's Appeal. I will speak at all the Masses and we will view the video the Bishop has prepared to begin this Appeal. Our Parish goal is $46,000.00 an ambitious goal but one I am sure we will meet. Your most generous response at Christmas of over $45,000.00 is an indication of how devoted you are to our Parish. Together we can work great things and in the words of Blessed Mother Theresa of Calcutta: "We can do something beautiful for God." More about the 2008 Bishop's Appeal in the weeks ahead.

And finally, our Trinitarian Community would ask the charity of your prayers for the repose of the soul of one of our Priest-Brothers, Father Wolfgang Mimms, O.S.S.T. who died last week in Victoria, Texas. Father served that parish community of Our Lady of Sorrows for over twenty years and was beloved in the Parish. His funeral was held this past Monday at our Monastery in Baltimore, Maryland with burial in our community cemetery. May Father Wolfgang's memory be eternal.

Once again, thank you a thousand times for your unfailing generosity to our beautiful Parish and School. Know that you are truly loved and precious.

May the week ahead be blessed in every way.

*In the love of Jesus,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

THE BISHOP'S APPEAL – IN ACTION!

The Office of Ethnic Ministries:

The Office of Ethnic Ministries helps the Diocese reach out to the Hispanic, Black, Haitian, Korean, Chinese, and Portuguese communities. The Diocese celebrates the contributions of these communities, by recognizing the cultures and gifts they bring to our parishes and the Church.
