From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Parish,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad in it!"

With this celebration of the Eucharist, we begin the Nineteenth Week in Ordinary Time and we continue our meditation on the sixth Chapter of the Gospel of St. John, the so-called Bread of Life Discourse. Today we hear Jesus' response to those who were upset about His explanation that the multiplication of the bread and fish signifies that He Himself is the heavenly bread that gives eternal life. In this response we find that the acceptance of Jesus' message is facilitated or hindered by how people have appropriated the Old Testament. Jesus' initial response to those who were "murmuring" against His words is to say no one is able to come to Jesus unless the Father brings them to Jesus. How the Father does so is immediately explained when Jesus, citing a prophetic verse, says that the one who listens and learns from the Father comes to Jesus. Then Jesus Himself points to the scripture of the wilderness generation eating manna in the desert, as the people who were murmuring against Jesus had also done. He does so in order to illustrate His claim that He is the true Bread come down from Heaven that enables eternal life.

The people Jesus is talking to wanted bread simply to satisfy their appetites. They have not learned from the Scriptures that the manna from heaven was to sustain them on their journey to the Promised Land and not just to satisfy their hunger. They have not learned from the Exodus account that the purpose of the manna was sustenance toward a greater goal and not the goal itself. In St. John's Gospel we read that the reason that the people do not believe in Jesus is because they have not believed in Moses. Understanding the Old Testament leads to belief in Jesus; failure to understand it leads to unbelief. The New Testament and its witness stand or fall for these people on the basis of their appreciation and understanding of the Old Testament witness that undergirds it. The God of the Bible is a God who invites people to journey. It begins with Abraham, then with Moses and the Israelites. Then there are the journeys the prophets take, like Elijah in today's reading, who is tired of being "on the road", but to whom God sends an angel of the Lord to feed so he can be on his way again to the mountain where he will meet God. God is a God Who calls us to journey, and while we are on the journey God provides food: manna in the desert, a hearth cake on the way to the mountains. Sometimes the journey is a physical one, but not always. The Jews in today's Gospel are invited to take a journey of faith: to see Jesus not as the Son of Joseph but as one who came down from Heaven. But they resist. They don't want to go to the Father and learn that Jesus is indeed the Son, the living bread come down from heaven for the life of the world. Like Elijah, we can get weary on the journey; like the crowd in the Gospel today, we can resist when God is doing something new in our lives. Today we ask God to help us be attuned to how God is speaking to us, how God is feeding us.

Our newly-formed "Men's Club" is doing wonderful work in the school, getting it ready for the bell to ring for the first day of classes. Classrooms, lavatories and hallways are all being given a face lift and a good cleaning. Our School is a beautiful facility and the Men's Club has been working diligently to keep it perfect. The Parish is most grateful for their time and for their hard work.

Congratulations and best wishes to Tim Brown. Tim has been playing the 4PM Mass at St. James since 2005 and on occasion at the Sunday night Mass at Incarnation. Tim has accepted a position as full time music director at Our Lady of the Mount Catholic Church in Warren, New Jersey. We will certainly miss Tim and we are truly grateful for all his talents they have enhanced our Sunday Eucharist and other Liturgical celebrations. We wish him well and much success in his new position. Tim, we will really miss you!

Those who attended last Sunday's Mass of Profession at St. James Church I am sure were truly impressed by the three Novices who professed their vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience. The Liturgy, the music, the reception afterwards were all perfect. A big THANK YOU to all who worked so hard to make this a truly memorable day. So many people were involved that I hesitate to name one single person for fear that others would be omitted. But you are always in my heart and you have the undying gratitude of the Parish and the Trinitarian Family. How proud all of us were on Sunday! As we say goodbye to our newly-professed Brothers we welcome our new Novices who received the Trinitarian Habit on Friday, July the 31st. They are Brother Richard Giner, O.S.S.T. and Brother Roderic Reyes, O.S.S.T. If you see the Novices please welcome them to our Parish and, as you do all so well, welcome them into your hearts. We wish Richard and Roderic a holy and prayerful Novitiate year. Our prayers are also with Father Gerard as he begins another year in this most important work of religious formation.

Next Sunday at the 9:30 Mass at St. James the Grotto of Our Lady of Good Remedy will be blessed and dedicated by Father Albert who is visiting his family in Baltimore and his parish family here at Incarnation-St. James. We welcome Father Albert who is such a wonderful Brother in the Order and we are so happy to have another prayer site on our parish grounds for reflection and meditation. After the Mass and dedication, there will be an informal reception in Trinity Hall. All are welcome to join us on this day of dedication and renewal. By special permission of Bishop John Smith even though it is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is Saturday, August the 15th, he has allowed the Feast to be extended until Sunday. The Assumption is the Patronal Feast of the Diocese of Trenton so allowing this Feast to be extended until Sunday allows the faithful to meditate on this great mystery of our faith, that at the end of her earthly life, Our Lady assumed body and soul into heaven by the power of her Divine Son. How appropriate that we dedicate the Grotto to Our Lady on this her most beautiful Feast. Please try to clear your calendar to attend this most important event in the life of our Parish.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. We welcome Father Albert home and wish him a wonderful vacation.

In the love of our Queen assumed into Heaven,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.
