From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

“This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad in it.”

Happy and blessed Father's Day to our Dads!

Brothers and sisters, with this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin Ordinary Time in earnest. Even though it began on Monday, June the 1st, the day after Pentecost Sunday, the last couple of Sundays have been given over to the consideration of the two greatest mysteries of our faith – The Most Blessed and Undivided Trinity and, last Sunday, the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or as it is more commonly known, Corpus Christi. These two Solemnities always displace the first Sundays in Ordinary Time so today we are back on track. This Sunday's Gospel is about Jesus stilling the storm that erupted on the Sea of Galilee. The “violent squall” at sea provokes terror in the disciples. Jesus' response implies that if they had faith, they would not be terrified. Similarly, when they arrive on the other side of the sea the people will exhibit a fear that caused them to ask Jesus to leave them. This is caused by Jesus' exorcising from a man a large number of demons. When they cross the sea again, a woman who is healed when she secretly touches the cloak of Jesus is filled with “fear and trembling” when Jesus asks who has touched Him. Again Jesus contrasts faith and fear. Fear of nature's power is understandable. Consider what the survivors of the Indian Ocean tsunami or of Hurricane Katrina went through, or the people who were the victims of the earthquake in China more recently. There is good reason to fear nature's destructive power. But we must look deeper, beyond the surface, at the event described in today's Gospel.

Some experienced fishermen were in that boat, yet they were terrified as it began to fill with water. At first, they let Jesus sleep, but finally, sensing that things were out of control, they wakened Him, asking accusingly, “Do you not care that we are perishing?” This statement is both an act of believing He could do something, and fear that He would not. Jesus responds to this ambivalence when He asks: “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?”

Many of us have those moments when we turn to Jesus, half believing, half disbelieving that He will take care of us. Through the centuries, people have asked, “Don't you care that we are perishing?” Don't you care that we are being threatened by all kinds of storms that can overwhelm and sink us? Don't you care that our lives are hanging by a thread? This Gospel story resonates with those moments.

As He did then, Jesus stands before us and says: “Why are you terrified? Do you not have faith?” Don't you see that I am with you? Don't you know I can calm the winds and quiet the sea that threatens? Do you not trust that all will be well? Perhaps the most common exhortation in the Scripture is: “Do not be afraid.”

It is spoken by the angel to Mary at Nazareth, to the shepherds in Bethlehem, to the women at the tomb on the first Easter morning, and many times in between. So, be not afraid; our God is with us.

Let us pray with confidence to the God revealed in the book of Job as one who is Lord of the sea, no matter what violent form it takes, physical or metaphorical. Let us turn with confidence to hear the words Jesus addresses to our fearful hearts: “Quiet. Be still. Know that I am God.” Let us rest at peace in the arms and in the Heart of the Lord.

In a different vein, today is Father's Day. Today we honor all those special gentlemen in our lives (and ladies too!) who have “fathered” us in life. Take time today and everyday to hold your Father close and to tell him how much you love him. I wish I could sit down again with my Father for just a few minutes and be with him. If your father has gone to Jesus, then you pray to him and for him that the fullness of life and love he has given you, he may now receive in our Father's Kingdom. Once again to all of our Fathers – a happy and blessed Father's Day.

Many of our parishioners and friends have commented on the two “new” statues at Incarnation Church in the adoration Chapel of the Church. Actually those statues, which are of our Trinitarian Founders, St. John DeMatha (on the left) and St. Felix of Valois, were from our Monastery near Washington, D.C. They used to be in the Chapter Room where the Religious gathered to discuss life and prayer in the Community. When DeMatha Catholic High School began to use the Monastery for administrative purposes, the statues were brought to our other Monastery in Baltimore, Holy Trinity Monastery and placed in the attic. I attended a meeting last May and Father Thomas Cerulo, the Superior asked me if I could use them in the Parish. I immediately said yes and in the Spring, right before Holy Week, Deacon Tom and Charlie Mahon began the process of installing them. It was a difficult task because the studs to secure them were not easily found. But through faith and perseverance they were able to install them. The wall mounts were made from left over wood work at the new Parish Center. How beautiful they look as they grace our worship space and remind us of the Order's purpose of redeeming those men and women whose faith was in danger. That is why St. John DeMatha holds the chains in his hands to symbolize the freedom of those held captive. Pray to our Holy Founders for freedom from everybody and everything that keeps us from realizing our full potential as men and women created in the Divine Image of God. If you are battling an addiction to drugs, alcohol, food, sex, gambling, whatever! Pray to our Holy Fathers John and Felix for liberation and grace.

Finally, remember that this is the month of June, the month of the Sacred Heart. Always have recourse to the Divine Heart of Jesus in all your needs and trials.

*O Sacred Heart, our hope lies deep in Thee
On earth You are an exile's rest
In Heaven, the Glory of the Blest
O Sacred Heart!*

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and blessing. Enjoy Summer, 2009 which begins this week. Have a safe, happy and holy Summer.

Lady,

DIOCESE OF TRENTON – MISSION COOP

Next week we are happy to take part in the Diocese of Trenton's Annual Mission Cooperative Appeal. We will welcome Father Jeffrey M. L'Arche, M.S. who will speak to us about the La Salette Missionaries.

"When Mary called us, her children, to "make this message known" to all her people, she did mean not only to serve in places where they have roads and air conditioning, but also to seek out and serve the poorest of the poor throughout God's world." (taken from the LaSalette website).

The LaSalette Missionaries work in countries such as Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, India, Madagascar, Namibia, as well as in at least eighteen more countries including our own. The Missionaries presently serve in twenty-six countries, soon to be extended to Haiti and Indonesia as well. Wherever they minister, they make Mary's message of reconciliation known to all God's people. The second collection next weekend will be for the LaSalette Mission. Please be generous.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE

TO THE SHRINE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION WASHINGTON, D.C.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2009

Bishop John Smith invites the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Trenton to journey with him to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, on Saturday, September 19, 2009. A pilgrimage is a devotional act of faith that has been part of human religious experiences for centuries. The journey of a pilgrim symbolizes the spiritual journey of the disciple. We step out of our normal routine and allow the physical journey to stretch our souls as we journey into the mystery of God. We discover our own need for conversion as we draw near to the "Holy".

Our coordinator is Claire Peer, 883-1111. We do not have all the trip plans together yet but you may call Claire to get on the bus list. This year, June 19 Pope Benedict XVI has proclaimed this as the Year of the Priest. Our Pilgrimage Theme will be:

"A Pilgrimage of Hope."

Comments from the 8th Grade...

"Dear Incarnation-St. James Parish - Thank you for all of the support and donations you gave for Incarnation-St. James School. From giving us microscopes and computers, to building the gym, you have really made our Catholic education the best. Thank you and God bless you."

Aysha Afroz, Class of '09

"Dear Parish community – Thank you for all the things that you have done for us – donations for the computer lab, Parish Center, the gym, the science lab; and all the things that you do that we don't even know about. Once again, thank you for everything."

Anthony Hillman, Class of '09

"Dear Parish community – I just want to thank you for donating supplies to our school. We are very grateful for the gym, and microscopes that were donated. The gym is used to play games and exercise, and we use microscopes to examine different things in the science lab. Thank you so much for all your help and donations. God bless you."

Devon Norman, Class of '09

SCHOOL ALUMNI NEWS

ISJ recently welcomed back its class of 2005 for a mini-reunion/pizza lunch. The alumni, who are now graduating from local high schools, came back to reunite with classmates and visit with former teachers. A tour of the school was given, and an impromptu volleyball game was played in the gym. More than half the class was able to join us, and teachers commented on how great it was to see how they have grown and matured! Some of the colleges these students will be moving on to include: Elizabethtown, Rider, Yale, Princeton, American University, Mercer County, Rutgers, and Lafayette. We say congratulations, good luck, and God bless you all!

MOUNT CARMEL GUILD

We are in need of Peanut Butter and Jelly, to provide for the children who lose their funded lunches once schools close. We appreciate your support and generosity. (Remember plastic jars). Thank you and God bless you.

Garden Fresh Vegetables for Mt. Carmel

St. James Parish, Pennington is collecting fresh produce for the Mount Carmel Guild this summer. If you have extra from your gardens we would be happy to pick it up. Just call Sue Ziegler at 883-0874. We will deliver to Mount Carmel each Monday through out the summer.
