FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRINCIPAL, SISTER PATRICIA O'DONELL, IHM

We are back in the full swing of things here at Incarnation-St. James School. Our beginning has been smooth and seamless – the only sad thing is that it seems like we never had a summer! The teachers and students are working hard and accomplishing great things.

When I first read the Gospel for this weekend, I thought: “Are you kidding me? How am I going to weave together divorce, Moses, the Pharisees, adultery and the school?” Then I kept reading and came to the line about the children coming to Jesus.

In the longer version of today’s Gospel, Jesus says to his disciples, “Let the children come to me.” I feel that this is the mantra and mission of Incarnation-St. James Parish. We are not like the apostles who look at the children as a nuisance to Jesus. We are a parish and school who welcomes and embraces children of all faiths and nationalities.

This Gospel causes me to pause and ask, “Do I seek to help others draw near to the Lord?” The parents who brought their children to Jesus wanted Jesus to lay his hands upon them. They knew of the healing power, both physical and spiritual, which came from Jesus’ touch. Jesus, in turn, rebukes his disciples for hindering the children from coming. Jesus delights in the children and demonstrates that God’s love has tons of room for everyone. Jesus uses the child to teach us a lesson about membership in the kingdom of God, and about the qualities of simplicity and childlike trust in God. Everyone is important to God. He comes to each of us to touch us with his healing power and love. I hope that as adults, we encourage our youth to come to Jesus and grow in friendship and love with him. As I/we grow with age (I don’t like to admit it), I hope that we never lose that child-like simplicity and humility which draws us into the Lord’s loving presence.

How does ISJ School enable our students “to come to me?” Each class has a daily religion lesson where we discover how Jesus is present in our lives and also learn about the teachings of the Catholic Church. Furthermore, we attend weekly mass, get involved in a variety of community outreach programs; support the missions, the elderly and the unborn. Our major focus is on treating each other with love and respect. No matter what faith, all our students learn that Jesus loves them and desires to live in their hearts.

So, “Let the children come to me.” Bring your children, neighbors, and grand-children to our Open House and Blood Drive today. You are going to see some amazing techniques, tools and technology throughout the school. ISJ is a great place for your child to learn, love and grow!

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your continued support of our collections of ink and laser cartridges, old cell phones, box tops, Marrazzo receipts and for participating in the Target – Take charge of education program. Over the past year we have received donations in the following amounts from these programs:

Factory Funding Program (cartridges and cell phones)	$455.00
Box Tops	$669.90
Marrazzo Receipts approximately	$500.00
Target – Take charge of education program	$423.82

Thanks to your support of these programs, we have been able to purchase some needed books, science equipment for our science lab, and art and computer supplies. Thank you again for your help and support. We count on your continued support of these programs. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives! Peace and blessings to you and your families.

Scrip – Gift card program

Thank you again for your support of this program. We raised $5,886 this year. Over $2,900 went towards students tuitions both here at ISJ and also at Notre Dame. We have a few families with students at Notre Dame who also support this program. We would like to double this amount, so we are going to begin selling the gift cards on the second and fourth weekends each month at both worship sites beginning the week-end of October 10. For those who are not sure of our program – you buy your gift card from the school e.g. Shop Rite. We have denominations of $25 and $100. You take it to the Shop Rite, buy your groceries and pay with the gift card. It is as simple as that. We also have them for Acme, Stop and Shop, Marrazzo’s, Home Depot, Lowes. We can also order cards for you from over 200 vendors; such as Dunkin Donuts, Olive Garden, Mobil/Exxon, WalMart, Barnes and Noble, and many more! We place the orders every Monday evening and they are sent to us usually by Friday. If you haven’t done scrip before, try it you will like it and it will help a family in our school with tuition, if not your own family. This is another way of being a Tuition Angel. Any questions about the program you may call the school office at 882-3228. Thank you, again for your support! Sister Francis Michael
