Dear Families,

You know very well that the true joy which we experience in the family is not superficial; it does not come from material objects, from the fact that everything seems to be going well... True joy comes from a profound harmony between persons, something which we all feel in our hearts and which makes us experience the beauty of togetherness, of mutual support along life's journey.

But the basis of this feeling of deep joy is the presence of God, the presence of God in the family and his love, which is welcoming, merciful, and respectful towards all. And above all, a love which is patient: patience is a virtue of God and he teaches us how to cultivate it in family life, how to be patient, and lovingly so, with each other. To be patient among ourselves. A patient love. God alone knows how to create harmony from differences. But if God's love is lacking, the family loses its harmony, self-centeredness prevails and joy fades. But the family which experiences the joy of faith communicates it naturally. That family is the salt of the earth and the light of the world; it is the leaven of society as a whole.

Do you pray together from time to time as a family? Some of you do, I know. But so many people say to me: But how can we? There is never a good time, a moment of peace... Yes, all that is true enough, but it is also a matter of humility, of realizing that we need God, all families, we need God: all of us! We need his help, his strength, his blessing, his mercy, his forgiveness. And we need simplicity to pray as a family: simplicity is necessary! Praying the Our Father together, around the table, is not something extraordinary: it's easy. And praying the Rosary together, as a family, is very beautiful and a source of great strength! And also praying for one another! The husband for his wife, the wife for her husband, both together for their children, the children for their grandparents... praying for each other. This is what it means to pray in the family and it is what makes the family strong: prayer.

How do we keep our faith as a family? Do we keep it for ourselves, in our families, as a personal treasure like a bank account, or are we able to share it by our witness, by our acceptance of others, by our openness? Christian families are missionary families. They are missionary also in everyday life, in their doing everyday things, as they bring to everything the salt and the leaven of faith! Keeping the faith in families and bringing to everyday things the salt and the leaven of faith. Have a family 'quality time' together.

Peace,
Fr. Santhosh George OSST

A Prayer for the World Meeting of Families Philadelphia 2015

God and Father of us all,
in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
you have made us
your sons and daughters
in the family of the Church.

May your grace and love
help our families
in every part of the world
be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

May the example of the Holy Family,
with the aid of your Holy Spirit,
guide all families,
especially those most troubled,
to be homes of communion and prayer and to always seek your truth and live in your love.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Thank you for your ongoing Catholic Stewardship and support of the Incarnation-St. James Parish.
Nothing can be done without you and your participation and generosity in time, spirit, and financial support.

St. Jerome Emiliani

Feastday: February 8

Birth: 1481 Death: 1537

Jerome Emiliani lay chained in the dark dirty dungeon. A short time before he had been a military commander for Venice in charge of a fortress. He didn't care much about God, he didn't need him, he had his own strength and the strength of his soldiers and weapons. When the fortress was captured, he was dragged off and imprisoned. In the dungeon, Jerome decided to get rid of the chains that bound him. He let go of his worldly attachments and embraced God.

When he escaped, he hung his chains in the church of Treviso, in gratitude for being freed from the prison and from his spiritual as well.

As mayor of Treviso he returned home to Venice and studied for the priesthood. The war was over but was followed by the famine and plague. Thousands suffered, and he devoted himself to service again – to the poor and suffering. He felt a special call to help the orphans who had no one. All their loved ones had been taken by sickness or starvation. He became their parent and family.

Using his own money, he rented a house, fed, clothed and educated them. His education was the first known catechetical teaching. His devotion to the suffering put him in danger and he fell ill. After recovering, he had an excuse to back away, instead he interpreted his suffering to be a sign of how little the ambitions of the world mattered.

His whole life and all he owned was to help others. He founded orphanages, a hospital, and shelters. This grew into a congregation of priests and brothers that was named after the place where they had a house: the Clerks Regular of Somascha. Although they spent time educating other young people, their primary work was always Jerome's first love -- helping orphans. His final chains fell away when he again fell ill while taking care of the sick. He died in 1537 at the age of 56. He is the patron saint of abandoned children and orphans.

Parish Religious Education Classes (CCD)

Cannon Law requires every parish to provide religious education for the children of the parish. Incarnation St. James Parish provides religious education on Monday evening at 6:30 to 7:45. We encourage all parents to seriously consider meeting their parental obligation to educate their children in the Catholic Faith. All our children, through their Baptism, are entitled to the opportunity and privilege of living a Sacramental life. Please bring your child to a grace filled relationship with Jesus and to be a fully initiated member of the Catholic Faith. If your child attends public school register them in Religious Ed Classes on Monday nights, as soon as possible, call 609 882 8989 for more information. Thank you!

Keep Warm .. Snuggle Up

The Ewing Knights of Columbus will be participating in the "40 cans for lent" program.

Please bring your canned food donations (and any other non-perishable food items) you would like to donate and place them in the containers located at each entrance.

All food donated will be given to the Mt. Carmel Guild.

What is 40 CANS FOR LENT®?

It is a program designed to help fight hunger.

While Christian based, is entirely non-denominational. All that is required is the desire to help others.

The program is simple

Collect one can of food per day during the 40 days of Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, and then one extra can per person on Easter Sunday. Drop off your cans at any time throughout the Season at church.

In the beginning ...

On September 25, 2010, Dennis Chaput woke up suddenly, needing food to raise his blood sugar. He got up, ate, and, while waiting for sleep to return, was given a vision from God. In this vision God outlined a plan to fight hunger around the world.

God told him...

As you prepare for Easter by sacrificing during Lent, remember the 40 days and nights that Christ spent in the desert, without food or water, praying and preparing for his sacrifice on behalf of mankind. During this Season, have each person donate one can of food each day. God called His plan 40 CANS FOR LENT® And then He asked Dennis, "Will you feed my people?" Dennis said, "YES". Now God is asking you..... What will you say?

Services begin at 7:00 p.m. The mission will be directed by lay evangelist Bill Wegner of Good News International.

Memorial Pavers

Memorial Pavers are still available for purchase and installation at the Our Lady of Good Remedy grotto within the St. James campus. Paver donations are $100. Forms are available at the rectory.

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

Vocational discernment groups meet to assist young men who are discerning the possibility that God may be calling them to a life of priestly ministry. These groups are designed to explore a priestly vocation with other like-minded men through prayer and sharing vocation stories and experiences. The group meetings aren't meant to convince anyone that the priesthood is their vocation. They are designed to assist you in discovering if the priesthood is your true vocation and build your relationship with Christ along the way.

If you are a faithful, single, Roman Catholic man, between the ages of 18 and 40, and are asking yourself whether God is calling you to be a priest, you are cordially invited to attend this month's discernment meeting on Feb. 22, from 4 to 6 pm at St. James Parish, 115 E. Delaware Ave., Pennington, NJ. Join Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Walsh, as he shares his experiences of the priesthood, followed by prayer and conclude with conversation and a meal.

Please register with Diocese of Trenton Vocation Office at vocations@diocesoftrenton.org or by calling 609-406-7449. Join us at this exciting time as you discover and respond to His invitation!
