From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of ISJ,

"Christ is risen from the dead and by death has trampled down upon death and to those in the grave He has bestowed life."
Liturgy of Easter

The Liturgy for this Third Sunday of Easter brings us back to the evening of Easter Day itself and St. Luke records for us another appearance of the Risen Savior. Resurrection stories do not start out on a happy note. People are either consumed by grief, as we find with the weeping Magdalene; or they are locked away in fear as the apostles were in the upper room, cowering behind bolted doors; or they are imprisoned in their doubt, as St. Thomas was for a full week after Jesus had risen from the dead; or they are going back home in a downcast and hopeless state, like the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. And when Jesus does make an appearance, they don't recognize Him.

Mary Magdalene thinks he is the gardener, the two on the road to Emmaus relate to Him as a perfect stranger, and today the apostles think He is a ghost and are terrified. It is instructive to remember what it is that allows them to make the connection: for Magdalene it is His calling her name; for the twelve in the upper room on Easter evening it is His greeting of peace and his showing His hands and His side – and this holds for Thomas a week later; for the two on the road, it is the breaking of the bread; and here in today's Gospel it is His showing His wounds and then his eating with them.

A certain pattern emerges concerning where the risen Lord was first recognized and where He continues to be found in our own day. It happens when His voice is heard and His words are apprehended, as well as at the table where the community gathers to eat. We continue to meet the risen Lord when we come to hear God's living word address us in the Holy Scriptures, and we continue to know His touch when we eat the bread of life and drink from the cup of salvation.

Our celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation was grand and glorious with many visiting clergy on hand to show support to our students as they publicly witness to the power of the Risen Savior in their lives of faith. We thank especially Sister Diane and all the teachers and staff of the Religious Education Department for their fine work in preparing the confirmandi of this most important milestone in their religious lives. Our choir and our ministers of the liturgy were, in a word, magnificent!!!

Our annual Volunteer Dinner on Friday evening was also a huge success. I always find the evening relaxing and so very enjoyable. It provides our parish with the opportunity to give back a little what so many people give so much. Without such dedicated volunteers no parish could continue to exist. Thank you always for saying "yes" and for serving with a heart like Jesus.

This coming Saturday, May the 2nd, our children will receive Jesus for the very first time in the Sacrament of First Holy Communion. This is always a special moment in the life of the parish and provides us with the opportunity to renew our love for Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar and our zeal and dedication to receive Him with the upmost love and devotion. I am sure all of us remember our First Holy Communion Day with great love and fondness. When I received my Communion in October, 1957 it snowed in the afternoon! My Mother and Father cooked a 27lb. turkey and we had about 50 people for dinner. I will never forget what a special day that was. The next day my Mother brought me to a studio for pictures. I still have the picture in my bedroom. What a day of special memories and deep, deep love. Our congratulations to our First Communion Class and to their parents and grandparents and to all who share in the joy of this most holy and special day.

Of course, in the midst of all this happiness we are saddened by the news that Father Pradeep will be leaving the Parish and returning to India where he will assist in the training and formation of our Religious there. I first met Father in Asbury Park when he came to assist us when I tore my right knee (ouch!!). Then he was assigned to St. James and became part of the merger in 2006. I have had the privilege of working with Father Pradeep since arriving on August 15th 2007. He always took time to acquaint me with the area and was very patient with me as I learned the ropes of a new ministry. He has always been a steady force in the midst of change and confusion. I know I shall miss him greatly but wish him well as he begins his new ministry closer to his Mother and family.

I know the parish joins me in wishing Father well and God-speed and much success in his new ventures. Next Sunday, May the 3rd there will be a farewell Mass and reception at St. James Church beginning with the 9:30 AM Mass and afterwards a reception in Trinity Hall. Please plan to attend and personally thank Father Pradeep for his ministry and to wish him well. Father will leave the United States on Thursday May the 7th. The Order has yet to announce a replacement for Father Pradeep. I will keep you posted as to new developments.

May this third week of this glorious Easter Season be filled with the light of Jesus rising from the dead. May we all share in the new life of Christ.

*In the love of the Risen Lord
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*
