Dear ISJ Family,

"Today is Palm Sunday and it is the beginning of the Great Week of the Christian Community, Holy Week: the week in which we remember and witness to and relive in our own lives the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Every other dimension of the Christian life finds its roots and inspiration in this Paschal Mystery.

The readings we hear on Palm Sunday recall two things: the entry of Jesus unto Jerusalem, which we heard at the beginning of Mass, and then the narrative of the Passion of Jesus which we have heard in the Gospel reading. Jesus' first hearers were aware of the way in which the history of salvation had unfolded over the centuries and how these events were recorded in the scriptures of the Old Testament. These scriptures pointed towards the Redeemer who was to come. But as we have heard in both of our readings not everyone who knew those scriptures was able or willing to recognize in Jesus the fulfilment of the promises of old.

We face the same challenge today. We have to ask ourselves then the question: "who is this Jesus Christ who enters into Jerusalem and who enters into our world and into the life of each of us". And we have to ask ourselves: how, when we recognize this Jesus, must we change the way we live? Today we commemorate Christ's entry into Jerusalem for the completion of the Paschal Mystery. In the old calendar before Vatican II, the Church celebrated Passion Sunday two Sundays before Easter, and then Palm Sunday was the beginning of Holy Week. The Church has combined the two to reinforce the solemnity of Holy Week.

The Palm Sunday procession is formed of Christians who, in the "fullness of faith," make their own the gesture of the Jews and endow it with its full significance. Following the Jews' example we proclaim Christ as a Victor... Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord. But by our faith we know, as they did not, all that His triumph stands for. He is the Messiah, the Son of David and the Son of God. He is the sign of contradiction, acclaimed by some and reviled by others. Sent into this world to wrest us from sin and the power of Satan, He underwent His Passion, the punishment for our sins, but issues forth triumphant from the tomb, the victor over death, making our peace with God and taking us with Him into the kingdom of His Father in heaven.

We pray that our celebration of Holy Week here will be a moment of renewal as we in all humility recognize the saving power of God revealed in Jesus who, as we heard in the second reading, humbles himself and gives himself for us. There is a growing interest in our days – among believers and non-believers alike – in pilgrimages and pilgrim walks. The fundamental pilgrim walk of the believing Christian, however, is the interior walk and the journey of life which we make alongside Jesus in this Holy Week. We journey with Jesus as he humbles himself and gives himself to death, so that all can reach resurrection and new life. Let us set out then on that pilgrim journey.

In Christ,
Fr. Santhosh George OSST

Our Parish Communal Lenten Reconciliation Service with individual confessions will take place this coming Tuesday. As you make your personal preparations for Holy Week and Easter, I invite you to join us in receiving the healing power of Jesus and the gift of God's grace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please plan on joining your parish community on March 31 at 7:00pm. Please join us for "Soup and Bread" at 6:00pm before the Penance Service. If this date is inconvenient for you there are other opportunities being offered for confessions on Holy Saturday. Please make a note of this.

Thank you for your ongoing Catholic Stewardship and support of the Incarnation St. James Parish. Nothing can be done without you and your participation and generosity in time, spirit, and financial support.

Weekly Goal: $13,500

Weekly Collection for March 22nd - not available

Holy Week is the week preceding Easter and the final week of Lent. Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday and ends with Holy Saturday, the day before Easter Sunday. Holy Week includes Holy Thursday (also known as Maundy Thursday) and Good Friday, which, together with Holy Saturday, are known as the Triduum. Before the revision of the liturgical calendar in 1969, Holy Week was the second week of Passiontide; in the current calendar, Passiontide is synonymous with Holy Week.

During Holy Week, Christians commemorate the Passion of Christ, Who died on Good Friday in reparation for the sins of mankind, and rose on Easter Sunday to give new life to all who believe. Thus, while Holy Week is solemn and sorrowful, it also anticipates the joy of Easter through the recognition of God's goodness in sending His Son to die for our salvation.
