From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Parish,

"This is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and we are glad!"

With this celebration of the Sunday Eucharist we begin the Twenty-First Week in the Ordinary Time of the Church year. For the last several weeks we have been reading from the 6th Chapter of the Gospel of St. John, the so-called "Bread of Life" Discourse and we have carefully meditated in the greatest Mystery and the greatest Treasure of the Church – the Most Holy Eucharist. "Unless you eat of the Flesh of the Son of Man and drink His Blood you will not have life in you." What an invitation Jesus extends to us every time we attend Eucharist. The Eucharist is not a mere "symbol" of Jesus – it IS Jesus, present Body and Blood, Soul, Divinity and Humanity as He is present to the Saints and Angels in Heaven. Each and every time we receive Jesus we are in Paradise. What an awesome thought to ponder!

Our reading today from the Gospel of Mark presents Jesus' effort to keep his disciples properly focused in the face of an attempt by Pharisees and Scribes to redirect the way the disciples express their religious commitment. The religious leaders complain that the disciples are eating with unwashed hands. In the Old Testament such washings were necessary for priests in preparation for sacrificial offerings. Apparently during Mark's time the matter of extending this practice to everyday meals was also being discussed. The real underlying question addressed in this passage apparently concerns where and how we address our limited psychic energy. In other words, how can our life be permeated with religious conviction? Notice how time-consuming the religious leaders' concern over purification must be. Mark writes that it is not only to hands, but also to "many other things" that their concern over purification extends: "the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds." According to Jesus, it is a much better use of one's time to concentrate on purifying the thoughts that are within us and that lead to immoral activities. Corresponding to the many things that the religious leaders seek to purify are the many types of thoughts – and the activities that spring from them – that Jesus calls to His Disciples' attention: "evil thoughts, un-chastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly." Moral cleanliness is from within and not from without. Jesus advises His disciples that holiness is not a matter of extending temple rituals into all the various spheres of one's life, but rather a matter of allowing only those thoughts that we have purified to be the ones to which we give assent. To monitor and refine thoughts and feelings are sacred activities.

I remember a book from years ago called "All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" by Robert Fulghum. At the outset, the author listed numerous sayings from his childhood that articulated attitudes, values, and practices for living a satisfying life. Such things as taking another's hand while crossing the street and always saying thank you come to mind.

From my own list I remember "Wash your hands." I was convinced that my parents obsessed over germs. Listening to our Gospel today, you could get the impression that the Pharisees also obsessed over germs with all the fuss over cleaning hands, cups, jugs, the "traditions of the elders." So when the religious laymen of Jesus' day- the Pharisees (the word itself means "the separate ones") – complained, they were perceived as taking the traditions of the law very seriously, whereas Jesus' disciples came across as clueless about the niceties of the Law of Moses. Nevertheless, Jesus gets right to the point, Calling the Pharisees and Scribes hypocrites, he goes on to name the real problem- not pots and pans or unclean hands, but escaping into externals rather than practicing what is at the heart of their religion: true love of God and neighbor. Jesus knew that God is not as caught up in the dirt on one's hands as with the corruption of one's spirit. So-called "religious" people could be careful about the cleanliness of their cutlery but totally oblivious to the neglect of the needy, even their own parents – all in the name of God and religion. Not what goes in, but what comes out is what renders a person unworthy before God. Today, God asks us to conduct an inventory of what is being held in storage within. It is not always easy to know that is more important. We ask the Father of lights to enlighten us by sending the Holy Spirit, so that we can be "doers of the word and not hearers only."

This week is rather quiet from a liturgical point of view. This Friday, September the 4th is the First Friday of the Month of September. The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from after the 9AM School Mass (Mass of the Holy Spirit) until 4PM when it will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please come and spend some quiet moments with Our Lord in the Sacrament of His love.

Saturday, September the 5th is the Feast of Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta. The facts of her life are well known. She devoted herself to the left-outs of the left-outs. Like the Little Flower, Ste. Therese, Mother would often say: "God is not so much concerned with what we do as long as we do it with much love." There are many in the Church who hope and pray for the day when it will be "Saint" Mother Teresa of Calcutta! Today (September the 5th) is also the First Saturday of the Month of September. On this day we honor, in a very special way, the Most Holy Mother of God. When She appeared in Fatima, She requested that people use the First Saturday of each month as a day to pray and meditate on the Holy Rosary and to keep company with Jesus and His Blessed Mother through a prayerful consideration of the Life, Death and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. We will talk more about the Rosary in the coming Month of October, the month of the Rosary. Let us strive to be a people of prayer and of great charity like Mother Teresa. This is THE perfect Christian life – combining intense prayer with intense charity. That was the secret of the holiness of Mother Teresa and indeed of all the saints. As we, as a Nation, are about to celebrate Labor Day, we pray that all our labors, and all our prayers will win many to God.

May the week ahead be filled with every grace and every blessing. We welcome back our students. They begin classes tomorrow, August the 31st. With Labor Day being so late this year, School is very early. Next year, back to normal. We pray that this year be filled to the brim with the brilliant light of the Holy Spirit and that our students be filled with enthusiasm and zeal for learning. Thanks once again to all our dedicated faculty and staff. Without you none of this would be possible.

Wishing you and your family God's choicest blessings,
*In the love of Jesus and Our Lady,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

Great Adventure Bible Timeline Study

Do You Want to Read the Bible, But Don’t Know How to Begin? Incarnation Saint-James Parish will be offering a twenty-four week study in three segments over the September to June academic year. Each session will have pre-reading, Q&A to do for understanding, and a two hour facilitated session of group discussion and a lecture by noted Bible lecturer Jeff Cavins on DVD. The Great Adventure Bible Timeline Study will be offered at Incarnation Saint-James in the Parish Center on both Thursday afternoons (1-3PM) or evenings (7-9PM) starting September 24th.

Registration will be necessary and a one time $20 charge ($10 for seniors) will be asked (but not demanded) in order to cover cost of materials (workbooks, etc.) and coffee/tea.

To register or for further information, see the parish Web Page (IncarnationStJames.org) or contact Deacon Frank Golazeski at 609 538-8727 or Frank@IncarnationStJames.org.

What's Going on During Mass?

Ever ask yourself what's going on at Mass? Ever wonder what "that" is in the Church? Bored with Mass? Kids bored at Mass? Maybe the antidote is to learn more about the Mass - what it's about, why we do what we do, why the Priest does what he does. Baseball, football, movies, and the Mass are all much more interesting if you know more about what's going on.

Join Father Dan and Deacon Frank Thursday evening, September 17th at 7PM in the Incarnation Parish Center. We'll have a slow motion walkthrough of the Mass with Q&A followed by a stroll to the church for a walkthrough of the worship space; it's a chance to look up close at things you've been wondering about.

Hope to see you there. Any questions? Contact Deacon Frank at Frank@IncarnationStJames.org or 609 538-8727 or Father Dan at the Rectory.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE

TO THE SHRINE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION WASHINGTON, D.C.
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2009

Bishop John Smith invites the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Trenton to journey with him to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, on Saturday, September 19, 2009. A pilgrimage is a devotional act of faith that has been part of human religious experiences for centuries. The journey of a pilgrim symbolizes the spiritual journey of the disciple. We step out of our normal routine and allow the physical journey to stretch our souls as we journey into the mystery of God. We discover our own need for conversion as we draw near to the “Holy”.

Our coordinator is Claire Peer, 883-1111. Our Pilgrimage Theme will be: “A Pilgrimage of Hope.”

Bus departs Incarnation parking lot at 7:30 a.m. returns home approximately 10:30 p.m. Cost per person is $45.00 and includes transportation and Smorgasbord at Cactus Willies Steak House in Maryland on return trip home.

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Don’t keep God’s love and your Catholic Faith all to yourself. Invite others to explore the treasures of our Catholic Faith through the RCIA. Please consider inviting someone who is not Catholic and searching for God – or a Catholic adult who has not received the Sacraments of Reconciliation, Holy Eucharist or Confirmation to join our RCIA Program. Which will begin with Inquiry Nights on Sunday, September 13 and September 20 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. This initial meeting allows time for questions, sharings and an introduction to the RCIA Program and the RCIA Team. For additional information or to register for classes please call Sister Diane at 609-882-8989.
