From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Parish,

"Let us rejoice in the Lord in celebrating this festival in honor of All Saints who give glory to the Triune God." – Liturgy of All Saints' Day

Today, brothers and sisters, we celebrate one of the greatest festivals of the entire Church Year – the great Feast of All Saints. Whether their names are on the Church calendar or not, whether there are churches named after them or not, in this one, great festival we celebrate all whose lives were lived in union and in communion with the Most Blessed Trinity and, after all, in a nutshell, is what it means to be a saint. The history of the Feast is an interesting one indeed. In the first centuries of the Christian Church, this Feast was celebrated during the Easter Season, usually around May the 13th to demonstrate that holiness comes from the Passion, Death and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. In other parts of Europe, for example in England All Saints was celebrated on April the 20th as well as in Ireland. In the 800's during the reign of the Holy Roman Emperor, Charlemagne, Pope Gregory IV fixed the date on November the 1st for a very practical reason because Rome was much too hot in the Summer to accommodate all the pilgrims and also on the First of November a pagan temple that was dedicated to all the gods and goddess was consecrated into a Christian Church now dedicated to All Saints. By the 12th century, the November 1st date was generally fixed throughout the Western, Latin Church. October the 31st is Halloween meaning the "Eve" of All Hallows (hallows being an English word for "saints") or simply Halloween. And, are you ready for this? The National Football League awarded the city of New Orleans the NFL franchise on November the 1st 1966 and because of this date, the Team was called the "New Orleans Saints." There, see I bet you didn't know that! See what you learn by reading the Pastor's Letter? Tomorrow, Monday the Second of November by an equally longstanding tradition is known as All Souls' Day when we remember all of our family and friends who have died. Many of them, I am sure, are now living with God and are great Saints in Heaven. The entire month of November remembers all the Saints and all the departed faithful who now live with God for all eternity. We pray to the Saints because they intercede before God on our behalf and we pray for the dead because where they are now, one day we shall be. The Bible tells us that "... it is a good and holy thought to pray for the dead, so that they may be freed from their sins." So as we can see from this brief reflection, November is a significant month in the life of the Liturgy and in the life of the Church.

A couple of reminders: this Friday, November the 6th is the First Friday of the Month. The Blessed Sacrament will be adored after the 9AM School Mass until 4PM when it will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Also our annual Night of Remembrance for all the Dead will be Wednesday, November the 11th beginning at 7PM at St. James Church. All families who have lost loved ones since last year have been contacted by mail to join in the Services. The names of the beloved deceased will be read aloud and a memorial candle will be lit, either to be kept burning by the Altar or taken home for private prayer. This is a very prayerful, emotional evening to remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. One and all are invited to attend. Again this will be Wednesday, November the 11th at 7PM at St. James Church.

Do you harbor a secret desire and longing to be a saint? Are you hoping that your life will someday merit examination by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints? Do you hope that in some future time people will invoke your name to intercede for them with God? Will future generations see your name inscribed among the already over 5,000 names listed in the Roman Martyrology, the official list of Catholic Saints? But we do not have to wait for official recognition from Rome to be a Saint, because we are all called to sainthood. In past centuries, the majority of those named saints were members of religious communities. Today, people from all walks of life and all cultures have gone through the beatification and canonization process. The Feast of All Saints is when the Church venerates all those saints, those declared, those with a feast day and those unknown. This feast is for all the saints, those who have died and those who still walk among us. The Catholic Catechism concisely describes this "communion" among believers, by which we are connected to Christ, and thus to one another: "Being more closely united to Christ, those who dwell in heaven fix the whole Church more firmly in holiness... They do not cease to intercede with the Father for us... So by their fraternal concern is our weakness greatly helped."

"... as Christian communion among our fellow pilgrims brings us closer to Christ, so our communion with the saints joins us to Christ, from Whom as from its fountain and head issues all grace, and the life of the People of God itself: We worship Christ as the Son of God; we love the martyrs as the Lord's disciples and imitators and rightly so because of their matchless devotion towards their King and Master. May we also be their companions and fellow disciples."

So as we can see from this reflection today's Feast is really central to the whole mystery of the Redemption. The Saints prove that holiness is the call of each and every one of us. May God be with each of us as we journey home to Him.

Let us remember throughout this holy month to pray for all our departed loved ones. May they rest in God's eternal peace.

*In the love Jesus and Our Lady,
Father Daniel, O.S.S.T.*

ISJ is a Great Place to Get Your Start!

The Trinitarians – Provincial Office

Dear Fr. Daniel and ISJ Parishioners,

Blessed be the Most Holy Trinity!

Many sincere and heartfelt thanks to you, Fr. Ken, and the parish family of Incarnation-St. James for your tremendous response to our appeal for our missions in India. Your generous gifts, totaling $2,000.00 show that faith, hope and love are present in abundance in your parish community.

I also wish, on behalf of the entire Trinitarian community, to express our most sincere gratitude for the tremendous welcome that you gave to Fr. Bitaju, Fr. Santhosh and Fr. Antony during their visit to your parish. The kindness and hospitality of the Incarnation-St. James family made a deep and lasting impact on our priests. It brings them great joy to know that they have friends who are remembering them and the persecuted Christians of India in their prayers.

The sacrifices that the parishioners of Incarnation-St. James made to assist our missions in India are truly a work of mercy and redemption. I trust that our loving God will bestow spiritual blessings on our brothers and sisters for their kindness.

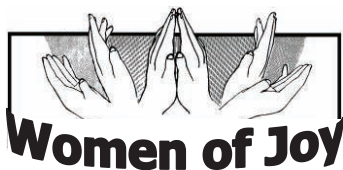

Receive, with this letter, the promise of a remembrance in the prayers and Masses of our Trinitarian communities here in the United States, in India, and in Cairo, Egypt.

Yours in the Most Holy Trinity,
Rev. Kurt J. Klismet, O.S.S.T., Director of Advancement

CENTERING PRAYER

Do you feel drawn to deepen your prayer life and your relationship with God? Centering prayer is the laying aside of thoughts. It is the opening of mind and heart, body and feelings – our whole being – to God, the Ultimate Mystery, beyond words, thoughts, and emotions. "Come and see" as Jesus would say, if Centering Prayer is for you. We gather together every Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the Faith Formation Office Room 4. If you are interested please join us.
